

The Trumpet is Blowing
Joel 2:1

END-TIME WATCH!

Be Rapture Ready

For the last trumpet is about to sound;
Wake up! and come out of error
1 Cor 15:51-52, 2 Cor 6:14-17

Visual Representation of the RAPTURE - 1 Thess 4 : 16-17.

The Trumpet is Blowing
Joel 2:1

END-TIME WATCH!

Be Rapture Ready

*For the last trumpet is about to sound;
Wake up! and come out of error
1 Cor 15:51-52, 2 Cor 6:14-17*

*Visual Representation of
the RAPTURE - 1 Thess 4 : 16-17.*

Copyright © 2026 Evangelist Edwin Nwachukwu.

All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced, stored, or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying and recording, except with written permission from the author.

All Scripture quotations are from the King James Version unless otherwise stated.

The digital version of this book is available free of charge at:
www.endtimewatch.org

The printed hardcopy is also available at a non-profit price.

If this message has blessed you and you feel led to support its wider reach, you may contact the author. Your contribution, whether small or great, will help extend this work through printing, distribution, and outreach, touching more lives.

“The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it.” Psalm 68:11

For further information or permission
Contact: edwinnwachukwu2017@gmail.com
+2347041034444
www.endtimewatch.org

Editor: Emeka Celestine Eze
Head of College Section,
Palm Springs Preparatory School, Wuse 2, Abuja.

Co editor: Dr. Ikenna Agu

Cover / inner Layout Design by: TEVAT CREATION LIMITED Email: tevatcreationltd@gmail.com Contact: +234 810 148 1114
--

DEDICATION

To the Holy Spirit, for the inspiration, wisdom, and conviction that made this book possible.*

Father, we thank You. Because Your kingdom is come, we now carry it out. We do Your will on earth as it is done in heaven. Matthew 6:10. This we do via the Holy Spirit, not by might nor by power. Romans 8:13. Proving what is acceptable unto You. Ephesians 5:10.

INTRODUCTION

Friends, by every indication the return of our Saviour Jesus Christ is nearer than ever, as written in 1 Corinthians 15:51-52 and 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17. "Listen!" says Jesus, "I am coming soon" (Revelation 22:12 GNT). Many professing Christians are aware of this, yet do not know what they ought to do. Many others remain unaware.

Worse, many churches have abandoned the foundation of the apostles and now operate in error that is another gospel which will ultimately lead to "Had I known" on the last day (Galatians 1:6-9).

But through the revelations of the Holy Spirit in this book, those who are the seed of God — the wise virgins — will read this epistle and come out of error before it is too late.

Jesus said, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me" (John 10:27) “

...and a stranger will they not follow" (John 10:5).

He also warned, "Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 7:21).

That is why He commanded us to be watchful against false prophets and wrong doctrines (Matthew 7:15; 16:6), and Paul warns, "Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall" (1 Corinthians 10:12). Jesus said of the Holy Spirit, "And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment" (John 16:8)

The Holy Spirit explains this and more in this book.

Jesus is coming soon. But not everyone calling Him "Lord" will go up (Matthew 7:21). The rapture is for wise virgins only. The foolish will be left behind (Matthew 25:10-12).

In 1 Corinthians, Apostle Paul declared,

"According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise Master builder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ" (1 Corinthians 3:10-11).

The rapture is not for those building on another foundation – false prophets, false doctrines, or false practices. Here are 5 Signs of Another Foundation that will get you left behind:

1. Another Way to the father

Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me" (John 14:6).

But this generation says there are other ways to the Father, and creates so-called co-redeemers. That is another gospel (Galatians 1:8). Another gospel will not get you raptured.

2. Another Baptism Formula

Jesus commanded baptism "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost" (Matthew 28:19). The apostles obeyed by baptizing in the name of Jesus Christ (Acts 2:38). The name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost is Jesus (Colossians 2:9).

But this generation is doing the opposite, not baptizing at all or repeating titles instead of the name that Jesus commanded is disobedience — that is operating in error and it is another gospel. The bride takes His name. Don't be a foolish virgin who says, "It doesn't matter, just believe and trust God." Read through to the end of this book, and you will understand it all clearly.

3. Another Set of Ministries

Aside from deacons who serve the church, Apostle Paul gave us five offices known as the fivefold ministry for the perfecting of the saints: apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers (Ephesians 4:11-12).

But this generation invented extra titles for honour and glory. That is another gospel. The rapture is for the perfected church, not a man-made clergy system (Ephesians 5:26-27). The church is washed by "the washing of water with the Word." False doctrine stains; truth applied from Scripture washes and keeps the church holy (Ephesians 5:27).

4. Another Doctrine: Spirit-Led vs. Believe Only

Jesus said, "Ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost" Acts 1:5

Paul explained, "If any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his" (Romans 8:9). No Holy Ghost, no heaven. No Holy Ghost, no rapture. Yet many stop at John 3:16 and say just believe and trust.

5. Another Sacrifice: Self-Righteous Works

After the cross, Jesus declared, "It is finished" (John 19:30). But this generation adds sacrifices and works for salvation, as if Christ's death was not enough. That is another gospel (Galatians 1:8). Come out of error and be rapture-ready.

But the wise virgins watch everything. The foundation is finished (1 Corinthians 3:11). No man can add to it. The wise virgins build on the finished work with gold, silver, precious stones — the apostles' doctrine (Acts 2:42). The foolish build with wood, hay, and stubble — traditions, wrong doctrines, moralism, and new revelations that contradict the Bible. It will burn (1 Corinthians 3:13). They will be left behind.

Christ's blood finished the payment. The apostles' doctrine finished the pattern. You cannot add to the payment, and you cannot subtract from the pattern.

The wise virgins rest in Jesus' sacrifice and walk in obedience. The foolish trust works to save them, or trust grace to excuse disobedience. The difference is this: the wise virgin loves the truth, seeks it, and obeys it. The foolish virgin says it doesn't matter — just believe. Be wise.

The rapture is coming. Jesus is coming soon. The question is not "when." The question is whether you are ready.?

REFLECTIONS

Dear Reader, know this: apart from unbelievers who will make the wise decision to turn to Christ after reading this book, misled believers who will come out of error, and wise virgins who are trimming their lamps as they read this book and amending their wrong doctrines for perfection, there are foolish virgins who may be waiting to hear, "I know you not" (Matthew 25:12).

Know this too—false prophets do not repent, they are the source of all heresy and rebellion. In this End-Time, people will persist in their choices, whether good or evil, as written in Revelation 22:11 (GNT).

Impostors may claim to have changed one or two of their doctrines, but in reality, it's not true. Paul says, “They will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived” (2 Timothy 3:13). “Beware of false prophets, Lord Jesus warned.” “You'll know them by their fruits” (Matthew 7:15-16).

They often:

- ❖ Refuse to acknowledge their errors
- ❖ Fail to repent of their deceit
- ❖ Continue to lead people astray
- ❖ Become more entrenched in their false teachings
- ❖ May even become more aggressive in defending their false claims
- ❖ Influence their followers to prefer idolization (blind devotion) of human leaders (the so-called 'GO', "Father in the Lord", etc.) over worshiping God alone and adhering to God's true word
- ❖ They hate the truth (2 Thessalonians 2:10)"

The reason false prophets often take the above positions is because they are often driven by:

- Pride and ego
- A hidden desire for honour and glory
- A craving for power and control
- A need for validation and followers
- A lack of accountability and humility

HOW GOD SEES THEM

- They are the serpent's seed (Genesis 3:15).
- Lord Jesus not only hates their hypocrisy, He calls them the TARES (Matthew 13:25).
- They are not to be loved, nor pitied (Deuteronomy 13:1-8, Psalm 139:21-22)

In contrast, true prophets are the children of God who:

- ✓ Recognize their mistakes and weaknesses
- ✓ Humbly repent and correct their errors
- ✓ Prioritize truth and accuracy
- ✓ Seek accountability and guidance
- ✓ Emphasize God's glory and purposes over personal gain
- ✓ They love God and also fear him (Ecclesiastes 12:13, John 14:21, Hebrew 12:28-29)
- ✓ They are the seed of the woman (Genesis 3:15).
- ✓ Jesus loves them and calls them the WHEAT (John 14:21, Matthew 13:38)
- ✓ They are to be loved and followed (1 Corinthians 11:1)

Let's be wise, able to distinguish between true and false prophets.

Prayer; O Lord help me to always strive to follow you and obey your word, the truth.

THE NARROW GATE

“All scripture is inspired by God” (2 Timothy 3:16). And it is written, “Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” (2 Timothy 2:15). Jesus says, “From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force” (Matthew 11:12). “And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me” (Matthew 10:38). He further said, “Strive to enter in at the narrow gate...” (Luke 13:24). For those who see embracing wholehearted obedience to God and contending for the faith—the truth (Jude 1:3)—as being as extreme should consider this: Lord Jesus left family, possessions, and comfort for God's will, facing shame, persecution, and death. He declared those who do his sayings as being wise. (Matthew 7:24-26).

The Apostles were persecuted, stoned, and killed. Peter also declared, “Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life” (John 6:68). Paul righteously worked hard and was ready to die for Jesus (Acts 21:10-13). These aren't extremes; they're examples.

Let's arise and serve God acceptably (Hebrew 12:28-29). We must learn from the warnings, commendations and corrections of the seven Churches of Revelation 2 and 3 if we love God indeed. Learn from the 7 churches, only SMYRNA AND PHILADELPHIA were serving God acceptably.

Contents

CHAPTER 1: THE RAPTURE / END TIME	1
CHAPTER 2: IDOL WORSHIPS: WITHIN	5
CHAPTER 3: GRACE IS ABUSED	11
CHAPTER 4: THE ANGER OF GOD	15
CHAPTER 5: THE HOLY GHOST IS COME	19
CHAPTER 6: SODOM AND GOMORRAH / END-TIME BIBLE PROPHECIES	26
CHAPTER 7: HEAVEN IS REAL AND HELL FIRE IS REAL	28
CHAPTER 8: LOVING GOD AND MAN EVERYDAY	32
CHAPTER 9: THE SEVEN CHURCHES OF THE APOCALYPSE	34
CHAPTER 10: WATCH THE SPIRIT, YOURSELF & THE MAN OF GOD	38
CHAPTER 11: ANOTHER FOUNDATION / ANOTHER GOSPEL	44
CHAPTER 12: WOMEN'S MINISTRY: WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY?	52
Chapter 13: THE KEYS OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN	56
Chapter 14: THE GOODNESS OF GOD AND HIS JUDGEMENT	64
Chapter 15: CHRISTMAS / BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS	68

CHAPTER 16: SATURDAY / SUNDAY WORSHIP	72
CHAPTER 17: ALTER CALL / BORNE AGAIN	76
CHAPTER 18: THE GODHEAD VS TRINITY & PROPER
WATER BAPTISM	78
CHAPTER 19: THE LORD SAID, I WILL HAVE MERCY.....
BUT ON WHO?	86
CHAPTER 20: BAPTISM OF THE HOLY GHOST /
ETERNAL LIFE	92
CHAPTER 21: THE DEMAND OF THE HOUR:
WATCH EVERYTHING	96
CHAPTER 22: BACK TO SENDER	98
CHAPTER 23: BORN AGAIN INSIDE AND OUT	102

Chapter ONE

THE RAPTURE / END TIME

LETTER TO THE SEEDS OF GOD (MATTHEW 13:38)

Hello, friends,

The signs of the end-time, as recorded in the Bible (Matthew 24, Mark 13, Luke 21, 2 Peter 2:1-2, 1 John 2:18), are clearly being witnessed in the world today! False prophets and antichrists have emerged in many places. They have deceived, and are still deceiving, multitudes.

“Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times (which is now) some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron.” (1 Timothy 4:1-2)

“For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.” (Matthew 24:24)

The Lord Jesus warned: “Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.” (Matthew 7:15).

Today, many people are confused as these scriptures are being fulfilled. False prophets and teachers have risen with worldly messages and doctrines of Satan, deceiving many and at the same time also being deceived themselves. Messages of financial prosperity, bowing before statues, shrines, or graven images in the name of prayer, honor, or worship, and the adulterated 'grace gospel' are common examples. These are perversions of the truth, and many are following them (Colossians 2:8; James 4:4; 2 Corinthians 2:17; Exodus 20:4-5; Revelation 9:20; Jude 4).

Lord Jesus continuously warned us about these corrupt teachings. He said: "Take heed and beware of the leaven (the doctrines) of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees..." (Matthew 16:6-12).

Apostle Paul described such teachings as "another gospel," which carries severe consequences (Galatians 1:6-9).

Let's not forget that true worshipers are those who serve God in spirit and in truth—not in the flesh or error. This is what Lord Jesus told the woman of Samaria (John 4:22-24). Paul also made it clear that it's only those who walk according to the Spirit of God that shall not be condemned (Romans 8:1; 8:4 KJV).

Brethren, it is time to reflect on the life you are living. Prayerfully seek the truth and understanding of the times we are in, so that you will be delivered from the lies of the devil.

Apostle John declared: "For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ." (John 1:17) Jesus also affirmed: "...and to this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice (John 18:37).

The Lord Jesus prayed to the Father: "Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth." (John 17:17). And to us, He said: "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.” (John 8:32)

Both Apostles Peter and Paul emphasized how imperative it is to know and obey the truth:

“God our Saviour... will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.” (1 Timothy 2:4)

Paul further said, “But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth” (2 Thessalonians 2:13)

Peter wrote: “Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently.” (1 Peter 1:22). So we must seek the truth and obey it through the Holy Spirit.

Again Paul warned Timothy about these end-time signs:

“This know also, that in the last days (which is now) perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.” (2 Timothy 3:1-5).

And Jesus said: “And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.” (Matthew 24:12). These are the realities we see all around us today.

Have you observed the alarming level of iniquity and wickedness in our society today?

Mammonism, intense hatred, killings, betrayal, kidnappings, irreconcilable differences in many homes as well as greed and crime dominate the lives of many. Violence is rampant, sicknesses and diseases are on the rise. The fear of God has departed from the hearts of many. “Christians” conforming to the world systems instead of conforming to the image of Christ, both in appearance and conduct (1 John 2:15-16). People go to church to seek miracles, fame, entertainment etc instead of seeking Christ, the Saviour.

Friends, be Watchful!

The Rapture is at hand. Search the Scriptures.

Hold fast to the Truth.

Prepare to meet the Lord!

Chapter

TWO

IDOL WORSHIPS: WITHIN

The Bible has made it very clear to us who God is - His nature, His greatness, and the things that are an abomination unto Him. Just as God commanded Adam and Eve concerning what they should eat and what they must not eat, even so has He commanded us concerning worship. God Almighty says in Exodus 20:3, 34:14, “For thou shalt worship no other god: for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.” Moses echoed the same perspective about God in Deuteronomy 4:24, “For the LORD thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God.” Joshua also warned the people that God is a jealous God, and that they must not serve other gods but the Lord alone—He tolerates no rival, neither human nor thing.

God Almighty repeated the warning in Deuteronomy 5:9 that He is a jealous God. He explained in verse 8 that the making of images in the likeness of things in heaven or on earth is forbidden, and bowing down to them is an abomination to Him. The Lord started this warning in Exodus 20:4-5, “Thou shall not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath or that is in the water under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me." Three Hebrew men—Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego—refused to bow to Nebuchadnezzar's golden image, demonstrating true faith in God. Their action showed that bowing down to images of men or things is idolatry (Daniel 3:8-30). When Satan demanded worship from the Lord Jesus, as it is common even today, Jesus rebuked him, saying, "...for it is written, thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve" (Matthew 4:8-10). Again, He clearly warned in Isaiah 48:8 saying, "I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another; neither my praise to graven images. From these Scriptures, it is very clear that our worship must be to God alone. But today, many professing Christians worship graven images, statues, and even the "Man of God", in the name of honor. Yet, even the angel of God warned us in Revelation 19:10 and 22:8-9 not to worship even angels—but God alone. Some individuals pray to deceased persons, "saints," who themselves are waiting for judgment, requesting their intercession. Such practice is nothing but spiritism and idolatry (Hebrews 9:27, Deuteronomy 18:10-11, Leviticus 19:31). Just know it that only the living can intercede for the living. Glory be to God! Jesus Christ, the Resurrected one and our High Priest, is alive and praying for us (Hebrew 7:25). Many professed believers adorn themselves, their homes, offices, their vehicles etc with the pictures of "Men of God," "saints," or images perceived to be that of Christ, hoping for miracles or protection. These are idolatry. The Lord said, "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge" (Hosea 4:6).

I myself was once guilty of these things but Christ saved me. Apostle Paul said, “Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ” (1 Corinthians 11:1), but today many follow “Men of God” who began falsely or who have long departed from the truth—because they are not watching.

Friends, do not be carried away by miracles, signs, wonders, or worldly achievements. You need to also know that it is not about whose church is first, second, largest, or most popular. Rather, watch through the lens of Scripture. The Bible says, “Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God...” (1 John 4:1), for there is the spirit of truth and the spirit of error (1 John 4:6). Remember also that God Almighty will test you with false prophets to see whether you truly love Him—or that Man of God (Deuteronomy 13:1-5).

Some believers today even pray through the “God of my Pastor,” “the God of this Commission,” or “through Virgin Mary,” in this present grace era?—that is idolatry. There is no record in Scripture where the Apostles prayed to or through the God of Moses, Elijah, Joshua, Peter, or Paul. Neither did they pray through any commission or person—but always in the name of the LORD JESUS CHRIST. He said, “If ye shall ask anything in my NAME, I will do it” (John 14:14). That is the perfect way of prayer. “Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other NAME under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved” (Acts 4:12). And it is only in His NAME that “every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth” (Philippians 2:10-11). Lord Jesus warned us against going through other ways, saying, “I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me” (John 14:6) Again He says “Verily verily I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep” (John 10:1).

Therefore, brethren, be watchful and stop idolatry.

COMMISSION MANDATE

Some “Men of God” will tell you that their commission or mandate is prosperity gospel and that's why they focus on that, while others claim it is faith and dominion, grace, motivational preaching, prophetic ministry, holiness, prayer and deliverance, healing ministry, and so on. Don't mind them—there is no such thing written in the Bible.

The command of God is clear: “But seek ye first the kingdom of God, (secondly) and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you” (Matthew 6:33). Those of us who have repented and believed the gospel have been given the ministry of reconciliation, “to wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself...” (2 Corinthians 5:18-19).

We are to preach the kingdom of God (Acts 28:31), to preach “Christ crucified” (1 Corinthians 1:23), and make them that believe Disciples of Christ (Mark 16:15-16). Every other thing is possible for us to do or become only in the NAME of the Lord Jesus (John 14:14; Matthew 21:22).

Therefore, brethren, be watchful, starting with you. Study your Bible diligently and pray to receive the Holy Ghost, that you may know the truth—and “the truth shall make you free” (John 8:32). And bear in mind, speaking in tongues is not always the evidence that a person has received the Holy Ghost. As you continue reading this epistle to the end, you will understand these things more perfectly.

MATERIALISM

Friends, are you watching the level of worldliness going on in Christendom today? Yet the Bible has forewarned us to “set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth” (Colossians 3:1-2).

Again, the Scripture says, “Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth forever” (1 John 2:15-17). And also, “For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace” (Romans 8:6).

But today, many “believers” have set their hearts on this present world and its beauty—which shall surely pass away. Apostle Paul did not boast in earthly things, but rejoiced in the glory that awaited him in God, and even gloried in his tribulations, saying, “We glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience” (Romans 5:3). But now, we see “Christians” boasting of earthly acquisitions—luxurious cars, mansions, private jets, cathedral churches, academic degrees and titles, fat bank accounts, influential friends and the like. These are the very things that worldly people glory in—and to glory in them is to be carnally minded. All these and more are why Lord Jesus warned us in Luke 12:15; “Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions”.

He also asked; “For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?” (Mark 8:36). I say, Nothing, Lord! Friends, worldliness has deeply entered the “church” in these last days. That is why many focus their gospel on materialism—things which they will surely leave behind, only to face judgment.

We are witnessing exactly what the Bible says: “For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; (such as this epistle) but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables” (2 Timothy 4:3-4). That is why they despise the truth and embrace lies. When you correct them in love, they say, “You are judging me.” They call rebuke “condemnation,” they call holiness and righteousness “over-spirituality” and they call modest dressing “religious.”

But we, the seed of God, must “give diligence to make your calling and election sure” (2 Peter 1:10). “For we were once lost and in darkness, but now we are called into His marvelous light.” Therefore, we must shine as lights—in our conversations, in our character, and even in our outward appearance (1 Peter 2:9-10). For “if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new” (2 Corinthians 5:17).

Some groups of “Christians” even say there is no hell fire—because they hate the truth (2 Timothy 4:3-4). But be assured of this one thing: the high standard of God has not changed and will never change! So watch and be sober, Jesus is coming very soon.

He that hath ear, let him hear what the Spirit is saying to the Churches.

Chapter

THREE

GRACE IS ABUSED

In Jude 4, we were warned that in the last days (which is now), grace abusers—whom the Bible says are marked for hell—would sneak into the church unnoticed. This is already happening. But we, the children of God, are alert. Some of them will preach grace at every opportunity—week after week, year after year. They are very crafty in what they do. They will often quote scriptures like Romans 4:4-5, Romans 10:9-11, Ephesians 2:8-9, Romans 3:24-29, and Romans 5:1, but they fail to give the full picture. They won't tell you that “the grace which brings salvation also teaches us (helps us) to deny ungodliness” (Titus 2:11-12). The bible says in Romans 3:23 “For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;” meaning man can't please God by his own ability. Jesus confirms in Mathew 19:26, “With men this is imposible; but with God all things are possible.” So, a believer must put faith in Christ to serve God “in spirit and in truth.” Paul says in Philipians 2:13, “For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.” So, the Lord is the one that helps those that believe and are poor in spirit to practice James 1:22 which says, "Be you doers of the word and not hearers only, deceiving yourself." Again Paul clearly said: "...Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid..."

(Romans 6:1-2).

The abuse of grace has made many "Christians" live like the people of the world. They have replaced obedience with faith alone. But friends, our faith must produce good works. Even Abraham, the father of faith, after God told him to offer his only son Isaac, He believed—and acted on that faith by going ahead to sacrifice him (Genesis 22:1-14). That's good works. Remember, "faith without works is dead" (James 2:17).

Furthermore, the Bible says: "Shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works." (James 2:18-26). Similarly, those who are hiding under the cover of grace to practice unrighteousness, hear the truth: The law says that if you are caught committing adultery with a woman you are guilty (Exodus 20:17). But under grace, the Lord Jesus raised the standard higher and said: "Whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart." (Matthew 5:28).

He gave many examples in Matthew 5:27-45 of how the standard has been raised under grace. Why? Because grace is not only an unmerited favour but empowerment as well. That's why Apostle Paul said: "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation (the grace we must look for) hath appeared to all men; teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world." (Titus 2:11-12). "Note this: no one earns salvation by good works, but we are saved unto good works and we are to discern what is acceptable before God..." (Ephesians 2:10; 5:1-11). Our good works after believing in Christ aren't dirty before God—it's a command! Consider this example: God anointed Jesus Christ with the Holy Spirit and power; who went about doing good... (Acts 10:38). The Apostles were called Christians for their adherence to Jesus' teachings (Act 11:26). Apostle James says, “...So, faith without works is dead also” (James 2:26). Friends, grace empowers us to live a holy and righteous life. Apostle John says, 'If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one which doeth righteousness is born of him.' (1 John 2:29; 3:7).

But many stop at good works, which becomes self-righteousness if it is done outside of a pure heart in Christ (1 Corinthians 13:3). Things like giving to the poor, helping one another, regular church activities and services, evangelism, etc, become empty works if done while ignoring a personal, obedient relationship with God—seeking Him through revelation and true discipleship (Matthew 16:16-19; Romans 1:17).

Paul warned that the disobedient went about establishing their own righteousness, meaning they served God on their own terms. This is self-righteousness, and it brings grave consequences.

Paul further warned: “For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness.” (Romans 1:18).

They provoked God's wrath because they changed the truth they knew into lies, inventing false doctrines and idolatrous practices. This led to their being given over to a reprobate mind (Romans 1:18-32).

Some of these false prophets never started well; they knew exactly what they were doing from the beginning. Others started well but were later distracted by the cares, pleasures, and riches of this world, causing them to abandon the truth (Mark 4:18-19, Galatians 5:7).

Lord Jesus pronounced them as belonging to the synagogue of Satan and as workers of iniquity (Revelation 2:9; 3:9; Matthew 7:22). But remember, "By their fruits ye shall know them." (Matthew 7:20).

Friends, do not be deceived.

Some are claiming to be the "Elijah" of Malachi 4:5-6 which says: Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD: And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse (Malachi 4:5-6)

Truth: John the Baptist fulfilled that prophecy.

Jesus Himself confirmed it: "Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him..." (Matthew 17:12-13). See the prophecy in Luke 1:13-17. But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb. And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God. And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

So WATCH! Do not idolize any man or follow false prophets. Jesus is coming soon. Do not be among the foolish virgins (Matthew 25:1-13). Repent and be rapture ready.

Chapter

FOUR

THE ANGER OF GOD

Are you aware that the absence of the true word of God in churches, as it were, is a fulfillment of Amos 8:11-14? There was a climax of evil during the time of Eli the priest in the Israel, and even in the temple, which kindled the anger of God, it led to the famine of the word of the Lord in those days (1 Samuel 3:1).

The Almighty God made it clear to us by the mouth of His servant Amos: “Behold, the days come, (which is also now), saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD: And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it. (Did you hear that?). On that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst. They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy god, O Dan, liveth; and, The manner of Beersheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again” (Amos 8:11-14).

Friends, these are the things happening now. Say not in your heart, “How can these things be?” Rather, be remorseful, repent, and flee for your soul now that mercy is yet available. For God can be angry after sending many warnings. Consider the consequences of idolatry in verse 14: they trusted in the god of Dan, and even swear by it. This was one of the reasons God became angry and sent a scarcity of the truth. He further declared that such people shall fall and shall not rise again.

So it is in these last days with idol worshippers—those who put undue faith in “men of God” or dead brethren, those who are blindly loyal to pastors and Church leaders, neglecting to seek a deep personal relationship with God. Knowing God by revelation is the ultimate. Many today prefer to say, “The God of my Pastor,” or “The God of my Church,” rather than simply and faithfully declaring “the NAME of the Lord Jesus.” Such people are like those who swear by the sin of Samaria. These “believers” hardly repent of their idolatry—human worship.

Friends, the fear of God (obedience), which is the beginning of wisdom, must not depart from anyone who desires to walk with God (Psalm 111:10; Proverbs 9:10; Ecc. 12:13; Luke 12:5). Remember that God was proud of Job. Why? It was because Job feared God and eschewed (deliberately avoid) evil (Job 1:8). But Eli, though a priest, feared not God, nor did his children. His sons polluted the temple, and he restrained them not. This led to Israel's defeat by the Philistines, the Ark of God was taken (the very presence of God), and as a result, there was a scarcity of the true word of God in those days, even as it is today (1 Samuel 3:1; 4:1-11). Jesus says, “Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.” (Revelation 2:5).

Again the Bible says, “Your iniquities have separated between you and your God” (Isaiah 59:2). These days, true words from God are scarcely heard in churches. Revelations have become a thing of the past, because of idolatry and wickedness that abound everywhere.

Other end-time signs already in motion include the New World Order and the One-World Religion project, also known as the Interfaith Movement, Ecumenism, and the like. We were warned in Revelation 20:4-6; 13:1-18 not to worship the beast, nor to receive his mark (666). The Bible says, “What fellowship hath light with darkness?” (2 Corinthians 6:14-18). Know this: the Lord Jesus, the Saviour of the world and the Prince of Peace, is not the head of that gathering they call the World “Peace Summit.” He is omitted from their assembly; therefore, it is Satan's program. Some so-called General Overseers and church leaders have joined that parliament—this is an abomination!

Watch the rise of AI technologies! It is another end-time sign (Revelation 13:14-18). Even now, we witness men marrying robots and committing vile acts with it. AI is replacing work positions meant for humans, AI preaching in some so-called Church. All manners of abominations are steadily unfolding before our very eyes.

Friends, the wrath of God is coming upon this wicked world. Covid-19, which served as an end-time warning, is but a child's play compared to what is yet to come.

“On that day, men shall cry, but their cries shall not help them. They shall seek death and shall not find it. They shall call for the mountains to fall upon them, but it shall be in vain” (Isaiah 34:8; Zephaniah 1:14-15; Romans 2:5, Revelation 6:12-17; 9:4-6).

Watch therefore, and be Rapture-ready.

Chapter

FIVE.

THE HOLY GHOST IS COME

As we are about to depart from this wicked world, let him that has ears to hear, hear. All these revelations in this epistle are true and are Holy Ghost inspired. In John 16:8-14, Jesus said the Holy Ghost will 'reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment.' He explained:

- “Of sin, because they believe not on me.” (The Holy Ghost exposes the world's sin—they're in error for not believing in Jesus, indeed (John 8:30-32; Mark 16:15-16, John 14:15).

- “Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and you see me no more;” (The Holy Spirit shows fake believers' errors of unrighteousness—they've introduced their own righteousness, rejecting faith in the Cross and resurrection victory (Romans 1:18-28; Colossians 2:8; Mark 7:13; 1 Corinthians 6:9-10).

- “Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.” (The Spirit declares they are condemned for sin, disobedience, false doctrines—sentence of death and damnation, some were given over to reprobate minds (John 3:18-20, Revelation 2:2, 2:20; Romans 10:2-3, Romans 1:28).

That is what the Holy Ghost is doing through this epistle: reminding, warning, correcting wrong doctrines.

THE HOLY GHOST IS OUR GUIDE

Friends, now that the Spirit of truth is come, He will guide us into all truth as the Lord Jesus promised, including things to come. He revealed the book of Revelation (also known as the Apocalypse) to Apostle John. He revealed to Apostle Paul that all who will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution; Paul and the other Apostles were examples of that (2 Timothy 3:10-12).

He also revealed to Apostle Peter that our sufferings as genuine Christians shall lead us to perfection (1 Peter 5:10). He instructed Paul to declare that no other foundation can be laid than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ, the chief cornerstone. There is no other basis for our faith or salvation but the “finished work of Christ on the Cross and His resurrection victory” (1 Corinthians 3:11).

The New Testament, which does not invalidate the Old Testament, is the Apostles' teachings built on Christ. Paul, by revelation, told the Corinthian church that “we are the temple of God,” not the physical building (1 Corinthians 3:16).

The Holy Ghost revealed to the Apostles the NAME of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, where the Lord commanded, saying: “Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the NAME of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost” (Matthew 28:19). As you read this epistle to the end, you will understand very well (You will know the NAME).

THE HOLY GHOST WILL POINT OUT ERRORS

The Lord Jesus further said: "He (the Holy Ghost) will shew you things to come." Yea, that includes the imminent return of Jesus, the great falling away which has started already, the judgment, and many more. These revelations and understanding of the truth, given to me by the Holy Ghost is one of the things to come (rightly dividing the word of truth, as commanded in 2 Timothy 2:15), are things which the tares, who are the children of the wicked one (Matthew 13:38), cannot understand or bear. This is what the Lord meant when He says: "I have many things to tell you, but ye cannot bear them now." That was then. But now that grace has fully come—grace also being our empowerment—He reveals everything. Remember this: all scripture is inspired by God, any revelation that contradicts the bible is a false gospel (Galatians 1:6-9)

Other heresies (false teachings) that are going on in so-called churches in these last days are such as: God loves you the way you are; just believe in Jesus and that is all—but they will not tell you that your sinful life pattern must change to holy living, which is a command from God Almighty. The Bible says, "Without holiness shall no man see the Lord" (Leviticus 11:43-45; 1 Corinthians 3:17; Romans 12:1; Hebrews 12:14). Some of them (grace preachers) do preach, saying, "You cannot do anything to make God love you more; don't condemn them and don't condemn yourself; Jesus did not condemn; we don't fear God—we love Him; God is only interested in your heart, your dressing doesn't matter." Others say, "Water baptism and the Last Supper (Communion) is expired; don't preach to them about hell fire or the rapture—just tell them it is well with them" (a sinner?). That is deception!

The Lord Jesus told the woman caught in adultery to "Go, and sin no more"—that is, continue not in sin (John 8:3-11). Jesus came to save us from our sins, not in our sins. You cannot continue to practice sin and at the same time “be in Christ” (Matthew 1:21). The Bible says that “God is angry with the sinner always” (Psalm 7:11), and that “The wrath of God is upon any “believer” who continues in sin” (1 John 3:8, 1 Corinthians 6:9-19). The Lord Jesus says, “As many as I love, I rebuke (correct /warn) and chasten (discipline/train) be zealous therefore, and repent” (Revelation 3:19). He corrects us.

Friends, be also mindful of those who say, “We preach Christ crucified” (1 Corinthians 1:23; 2:2)—which is true; I preach that too—but friends, we are accountable for the way we live as “believers.” The Lord Jesus says, “Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven” (Matthew 7:21-23). For there are sheep and goats among us, as Jesus Himself said in Matthew 25:3-46!

Apostle Paul was watchful to discern such people; he called them “false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ” (2 Corinthians 11:12-15).

There are also other groups of hypocrites, who preach another Jesus (2 Corinthians 11:4). All their doctrines oppose the truth and prevent people from entering heaven by their teaching practices. The Lord Jesus says, “Woe unto you... for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in” (Matthew 23:13). They travel far and wide—even cross borders (as missionaries)—to introduce (evangelize) what I call their own gospel. And if they convert anyone, they make him “twofold more the child of hell than themselves” (Matthew 23:15).

Those who say, “All you need to do is believe in Christ and trust Him.” Hear the truth: the Lord Jesus says, “For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life” (John 3:16). Yet He explains in verse 21, saying, “But he that doeth truth (knowing the truth and obeying it) cometh to the light, (Living transparently) that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God (Showcasing God's work).” He explains further in Mathew 7:24, “Whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man...” The Lord further explained what it takes to be a true believer in John 8:31-32, and 14:15, saying, “If you continue in my word, then are you my disciple indeed. If you love me, keep my commandments.” Apostle John in agreement also says: “For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous” (1 John 5:3).

Paul likewise says, “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation” (Romans 10:9-10). He continues in verse 11: “Whosoever believeth on Him shall not be ashamed.” Yet he added, “But they have not all obeyed the gospel” (Romans 10:16). Therefore, false believers—also called workers of iniquity by the Lord in Matthew 7:21-23—are those who, after believing, obey error and falsehood.

This is why Apostle Paul reminded the Corinthian believers, “Be not deceived: the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God” (1 Corinthians 6:9-10). Apostle John also said: “Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; (practice sin) for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, (continue in sin) because he is born of God” (1 John 3:9).

Friends, being born again do not stop at believing. Even Satan is a believer! (Mark 3:11). He believes that Jesus is the Son of God and that God is good and just, that is why he accuses us before God day and night, but he did not submit to God because of pride and envy, and therefore was cast out of heaven (James 2:19; Revelation 12:10).

Remember this saying from Lord Jesus, “Whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock” (Matthew 7:24). Did ye hear that? Likewise, the proof of a true husband is that he loves his wife (as Christ loved us), and a true wife submits to her husband in love. So, believe and trust alone is not enough, but total submission to God. Jesus came to raise disciples, not mere believers.

John the Baptist also says, “He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him” (John 3:36). The Lord Jesus explained it further, “He that believeth on Him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the NAME of the only begotten Son of God” (John 3:18). He continues, “And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light... For every one that doeth evil hateth the light... lest his deeds should be reproved... But he that doeth truth cometh to the light...” (John 3:19-21).

Therefore, Christianity does not stop at believing and trusting. So as I said, Jesus came to raise disciples, not mere believers. He also says, “And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?” (Luke 6:46).

Today, even gays and lesbians, (abusers of themselves) a lifestyle that caused a rain of God's anger in the land of Sodom and Gomorrah—is an expressway to hell fire—are being celebrated even in some “churches” under the false claim of guaranteeing equality of human right. Jesus is still calling; “Come out of such church, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins” (Revelation. 18:4). Be among the wise virgin.

THE HOLY GHOST IS COME

Chapter

SIX.

SODOM AND GOMORRAH / END-TIME BIBLE PROPHECIES

The era of Noah and Lot, as in Sodom and Gomorrah, characterized by celebrations (partying), immorality, and all abominable things, is now playing out before our eyes—just as the Bible said it would be before the return of our Lord Jesus (Luke 17:26-30; Jude 18). The Lord Jesus says, So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled. (The generation that witnesses these things — that's our generation) Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only. But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. (Matthew 24:33-37).

Friends, as it stands today, the gospel of Christ has been preached in all nations of the world, so now is the end (Matthew 24:14). We now witness increased wars and rumors of wars, earthquakes, famines, escalating catastrophes, intense persecution of Christians, and open blasphemy against God Almighty.

Knowledge has increased (Daniel 12:4)—evidenced by technological advancements. The recent emergence and application of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in different sectors confirms the reality of the Biblical prophecy.

The falling away of many from the truth is ongoing now in churches (2 Thessalonians 2:3). Many “men of God” have departed from the faith (1 Timothy 4:1-2). Nation is rising against nation (Matthew 24:7). False prophets have risen against false prophets, even to the true prophets, both online and in person. So, “Watch therefore: for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh” (Matthew 25:13). The Lord Jesus said, “And behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be” (Revelation 22:12).

Friends, be you Rapture ready!

Chapter

SEVEN.

HEAVEN IS REAL AND HELL FIRE IS REAL

The question is this: If the trumpet sounds now, or you die today, where will you spend eternity? You should know that there is no repentance after death. No amount of rituals—which is paganism—or prayers can change a person's eternal destination, “saying” may his or her soul rest in peace, can’t change anything. And there is no such place as purgatory.

Heaven is a holy and joyful place, prepared for those whose sins have been washed away by the precious blood of the Lord Jesus Christ that was shed on the Cross of Calvary (Hebrews 9:27-28; 2 Corinthians 5:1; Revelation 21:1-4; 7:14). It is for those who, by love and faith in Christ (John 3:16-18; Philippians 3:20; Mark 16:15-16; Romans 8:9), live in true obedience to His word and His will. Such ones have the Holy Ghost (John 14:15; Hebrews 5:9; Romans 8:1; 8:4-9; Matthew 5:10).

Brother Paul declares, “For our conversation (citizenship) is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ” (Philippians 3:20). Lord Jesus says, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the Kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven” (Mathew 7:21). So indeed there is Heaven. Hearken: Some say, “I do not want to go to heaven; I will build the kingdom now on earth.”

Yet no man chooses the kingdom of God, nor can any man build it for himself or for God Almighty.

Our Lord Jesus Christ is omnipresent, but He dwelleth not in temples made with hands, nor in the kingdoms built by men. Acts 7:48; Acts 17:24

The redeemed of God, also called the righteous, shall inherit the new heaven and the new earth, but flesh and blood cannot inherit it. 1 Corinthians 15:50; Revelation 21:1

First the dead in Christ shall rise, then we which are alive shall be changed. Only then shall the meek inherit the earth. 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17; Psalm 37:11; Matthew 5:5.

A New Heaven and a New Earth: A Parmanent Future Dwelling Place for the Saints

God has a special arrangement for the saints. It cannot be compared to any pension plan the system of the world offers. In Revelation 21:1: it states calerly thus: “Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away.”

See also the prophecy of Isaiah 65:17, 66:22: of God creating “new heavens and a new earth.” Apostle Peter has this to says in 2 Peter 3:13: “We are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, where righteousness dwells.”

It's not just a fixed-up version of this world. It's a completely renewed creation, free from sin, death, and decay.

How is it different from the current “Heaven” now?

- ❖ Heaven now is where God dwells, and where believers go when they die. Revelation 4-5 describes it as God's throne room.
- ❖ New Heaven/New Earth is God's dwelling comes down to be with the saints. Revelation 21:3 says “the dwelling place of God is with man.” It's physical, restored, and eternal.

Think: Eden restored, but better and forever.

On the other hand, hell fire is a place of torment and sorrow, prepared for Satan, unbelievers, and those who professed Jesus as Lord but lived in hypocrisy. Some were lukewarm Christians, some were active in religious activities—holding programs, preaching, or even doing miracles, signs, and wonders—but they served God in the flesh and in error, and ultimately lived and died in sin (Matthew 7:21-23; Revelation 20:10; 14:9-11).

Just know clearly again that hell fire is real, and it is the destination of evildoers. For it is written, “The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God” (Psalm 9:17).

The Lord Jesus Himself warned, saying that “if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched” (Isaiah 66:24, Mark 9:43-48). So, there is hell fire.

Just remember that those to whom the Lord will say, “I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity” (Matthew 7:23), are those who called themselves “born again Christians” but were careless, worldly, and not watching. When the scribe responded to Jesus wisely, explaining deeper what it takes to love God, Jesus saw his intellectual response and said, you are not far from the kingdom (Mark 12:28-34). You see, you can be a teacher of the gospel yet not be in the kingdom. Why? Because it is not just about knowing it, but being doers of the word from a pure heart by the Holy Ghost (Romans 8:13). So, be watchful and ready, for the rapture will soon take place. Remember the story of the ten virgins in Matthew 25:1-13—five were wise, and five were foolish.

Therefore be among the wise virgin, wake up and seek the truth now—before it is too late.

Chapter

EIGHT.

LOVING GOD AND MAN EVERYDAY

When the Lord Jesus was asked which commandment is the greatest, He answered: “And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these” (Mark 12:30-31).

Friends, we must always remember that He first loved us; ours is to love Him in return. As a genuine born-again Christian, and one led by the Holy Ghost, I have made the love of God and love for people my priority and my joy—to return joy unto my Darling Jesus all the days of my life through my obedience to His Word and His will by the help of the Holy Ghost (Romans 8:13; Philippians 2:13).

I dedicate time to worship, fellowship, and learn from Him, just to mention a few. I have written—and still write—many love letters to Him, and during my quiet time (private fellowship with Him), I read them to Him. What joyful moments those have been! I miss Him daily—not because of what He can do for me, but because of who He is. His loving kindness, awesome power, mercy, and simplicity have become my dwelling place—my peace. He is so gracious and sufficient for me.

Likewise, my love for people is unwavering, not dependent on whether they reciprocate or not, and not selective—but agape love.

My love for the Lord Jesus also compels me to examine myself constantly (1 Corinthians 11:31). It is not just about confessing sin, but about fleeing from every appearance of evil, and striving to truly know Him (1 Thessalonians 5:22; Jeremiah 29:13; Luke 13:24). Apostle Paul declared: “Let everyone that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity” (2 Timothy 2:19).

Again, my love for people is not limited to charitable works—not done for show, such as hospital and prison outreaches, supporting widows and Orphans, caring for accident victims when I come across them—but extends to praying for mercy even for those who hate me and have dealt with me treacherously. Jesus says, “Pray for them which despitefully use you and persecute you (Mathew 5:44-48). I also know, as it is written, “Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution” (2 Timothy 3:12). Paul further said; “...We must through many tribulations enter the kingdom of God” (Acts 14:22).

Furthermore, my love for God is not passive; I love what He loves and hate what He hates (Revelation 2:6). I will not and do not receive doctrines from false prophets or fallen angels, for I am watchful, discerning as they speak (John 10:5). Because my faith in God is rooted in love, I daily practice Deuteronomy 6:4-8, binding His word upon my heart and teaching it diligently.

Chapter

NINE

THE SEVEN CHURCHES OF THE APOCALYPSE

Friends, as I said earlier, we must learn from the warnings, commendations, and corrections given to the seven churches in Revelation chapters 2 and 3. These letters are not just historical but speak to us today in this final hour.

Take the Church of Thyatira, for example. Outwardly, they seemed to be doing well—operating in love, rendering service to God, having strong faith, and showing patience. But despite these qualities, they were disqualified by God. Why? They received the messages of a false prophet and gave their hearts to her teachings, committing spiritual fornication (Revelation 2:18-20).

The Church of Ephesus had tested those claiming to be servants of God, discovered they were liars, and did not tolerate their false teachings and He commended them for it! Yet, their love for God had diminished, and they were warned to repent and return to their first love. Otherwise, He would remove His presence (the candlestick) from among them (Revelation 2:2-5). They got commendations for hating idolatry and evil practices, but now needed to own up to their spiritual drift and turn back.

Many today who have fallen away do not realize it. They might be deceived by multitudes, large crusade attendance, or miracles—but they're no longer truly standing because they're not watching. The Church of the Laodiceans had become dormant, carried away by their Church's physical greatness, but the Lord said they were “wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked” (Revelation 3:14-17).

It is not about physical greatness, popularity, years of service, or persecution—it's about watchfulness, obedience, and repentance. Consider the Church of Pergamos, established where “Satan's seat” was—a place of spiritual trouble and warfare. Though they held fast to their faith, some were killed for it, yet the Lord warned them to repent. Why? They tolerated false doctrines and evil practices (Revelation 2:12-16). Faith alone isn't enough—your doctrine matters.

This church welcomed the teachings of Balaam and the Nicolaitans—bringing pagan practices, idolatry, and the culture and traditions of men into the house of God.

Friends, isn't this exactly what's happening in many so-called churches today? Paganism, idolatry, and worldliness are being preached and practiced alongside the gospel, corrupting the truth. Let us be sober, vigilant, and watchful, lest we fall into the same condemnation. The Lord is calling His people back to the Bible and to embrace true holiness and obedience.”

TRUE LOVE & OBEDIENCE = BLESSINGS

Lord Jesus while conversing with the people says, “And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; (what is the reason) for I do always those things that please him. As he spake these words, many believe on him. Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, “If you continue in my word, then are you my disciples indeed; (now see the blessing) And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free (John 8:29-32). Friends, do not be deceived by those that tell you that obedience to God is not necessary, or that all you need to do is merely to believe in Christ. The Lord commended the Church in Philadelphia because they knew the truth and did not depart from it. Though physically they were not mighty or strong, yet they kept their faith in God alive; their works (services) were in order. And the Lord said to that church: “Behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it.” And to show the world that He loved them specially, He said: “Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth” (Revelation 3:7-10).

The lesson here is this: those that say “you can do nothing to make God love you more” are lying. The Lord clearly said, “Because thou hast done this, and hast patiently waited for me and remained faithful, I also will protect thee in the days of trouble that shall come upon this world” (Revelation 3:10).

Consider also what God said to Abraham: “Because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: in blessing I will bless thee...” (Genesis 22:15-18). And He went on to pronounce many blessings upon Abraham. Therefore, true obedience attracts blessings, and brings friendship with God.

The Lord likewise commended the Church in Smyrna, encouraging them to continue in the fight of faith unto the end. He said unto them: “I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty (but thou art rich)... Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer...” (Revelation 2:8-10). This church was poor physically, yet rich spiritually. Friends, the state of our spiritual life ought to be our concern. Let us, therefore, watch, and amend our ways.

Also, to the Church in Sardis the Lord gave a warning, saying: “Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.” He further warned: “If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee” (Revelation 3:2-3). This church thought it was doing well, being physically prosperous, but they watched not over their spiritual state—their doctrines and their works before God.

And mark this: the Lord Jesus said He would come unto them. But this coming in this context is not the Rapture; it is in line with Revelation 2:2-5, where He warned the pastor of the Church in Ephesus that He would remove his candlestick (that is, the presence of God) out of its place unless he repented. Can you see now that many—even though they work miracles, signs, and wonders; even though they have shown love to many, planted churches, or very skillful in singing praises to God, helped the poor, fasted, prayed regularly, welcomed strangers, and even built orphanage homes (1 Corinthians 13:3)—yet are vessels unto dishonour? (2 Timothy 2:19-20). Why? It is because of their doctrines and practices. So you need to be watchful and ready for the rapture. Do not stop at repentance from sin, or build your faith on morality. Watch your doctrine and conduct.

The LORD says: “Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame” (Revelation 16:15). Jesus says, “And what I say to you I say unto all, Watch (Mark 13:37)

Chapter

TEN.

WATCH THE SPIRIT, YOURSELF & THE MAN OF GOD

In 1John 4:1 and verse 6, Apostle John writes, “Beloved, believe not every spirits, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. He continue to explain how to identify these false prophets, and in verse 6, he says, “We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; (believe our message, the truth, even this epistle) Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of erro”. Therefore, let him that thinks he is standing firm watch! Watch also what the spirits speak to you, for even fallen angels do speak to “men of God.” Remember the soothsayer in Philippi, who spoke accurately, yet by a demonic spirit (Acts 16:16-18). Eve was not watchful, and Satan spoke to her, and she was deceived (Genesis 3:1-5). It was lying spirit also that spoke through the prophets who deceived King Ahab (1 Kings 22:19-22).

In this time, we have heard of a prominent “man of God” who preached holiness and rebuked sin, yet said he used to have meetings with Isaiah, Jeremiah, the twenty-four elders, and sometimes even Paul etc. This is spiritism and spiritual fornication. Such person is being deceived by fallen angels who transform themselves as angels of light (2 Corinthians 11:14-15). He had fallen away because he was not watchful. And this falling away is still ongoing, as it is written (2 Thessalonians 2:3).

Brethren in the Holy Ghost School, watch! That you will not be among those who have fallen away, or who practice spiritism, whether knowingly or unknowingly. And forget not the gathering of the brethren (Hebrews 10:25), as some do. The Scripture says: “Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend” (Proverbs 27:17). Therefore, the fellowship of believers is required of us as the apostles gathered together on Sundays to worship the Lord (Acts 20: 7).

There are some “men of God” who will make you believe that your blessings and spiritual growth can only come through them—do not believe them. Though we must render honour to whom honour is due but not worship (Romans 13:7), and though we may identify with those who have laboured in teaching and mentoring us, provided they have not departed from the truth, but remember that Jesus said, “Ye are all brethren.” Paul called Timothy his son in the faith because he brought him up in the Gospel (1 Corinthians 4:15), yet we are to be mindful so that we do not idolize any man, even though he prayed or interceded for us. You must bear in mind that the Lord Jesus warned us not to call anyone Father or Master here on earth, for we have only one Father who is in heaven and Jesus, our Master and Rabbi. We are all brethren before Him. (Matthew 23:8-10). The apostles and even Timothy, whom Paul called his son, called no man “Father in the Lord,” as it is now commonly practiced.

Brethren, someone that is still alive can pray for you but bear in mind that in this dispensation of grace, the Lord Jesus alone is the source of our blessings. He alone is the Mediator between God and men, and our great High Priest who deserves our total submission (1 Timothy 2:5; Hebrews 4:14-15; 7:25). He says: “Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28). Some of these “men of God” desperately desire followership, and so they make themselves as semigod; and their followers, in calling them “Father in the Lord,” put too much faith and love in them. Hear this: if you are doing such things, both you and the one whom you idolize have fallen away, and become false prophets.

The Bible never said, “Believe the false prophet, so shalt thou prosper” (2 Chronicles 20:20); rather, “watch” (Matthew 7:15-16). The Scripture also says in Deuteronomy 13:1-5 that if a prophet or a dreamer of dreams should rise to turn you away from the LORD your God by their doctrines or teachings, you should ignore such a person!

Friends, if you want to make heaven,—not merely earthly blessings—know this: we are at war with the devil. His weapons of warfare are deceit and accusation (Genesis 3:1-7; Revelation 12:10). Therefore, watch and pray.

SELF CHECK, A MUST

Self-examination is essential, especially in this last hour, not minding your position or title. Apostle Paul, writing to the Corinthian church, said, “Examine yourself to see if your faith is genuine. Test yourself. Surely you know that Jesus Christ is among you; (to know if truly you have the Holy Ghost) if not, you have failed the test of genuine faith.” (2 Corinthians 13:5). Paul knew by the Spirit that many would be carried away with miracles, signs, and wonders, or by the physical greatness of the church, and he gave this charge to all of us. Therefore, even if you pray or prayed for and received a miracle, you still need to watch!

Years ago, God healed me of a spinal injury for which I was referred to India for surgery which doctors predicted a 50/50 chance of survival, along with huge expenses involved. He also healed me of heart disease, and of many other afflictions. And by His mercies, many have been healed through me also—but still, I watch.

When miracles begin to flow through your ministerial works—watch! Even if you have raised the dead—watch! If you have the grace/anointing to destroy shrines, family evil altars, or covenants—still watch! For it may yet be that you have fallen, or are numbered among the false prophets. Study carefully Deuteronomy 13:1-5; it says that even if a prophecy comes to pass, you must still watch, because your doctrines matter before God.

The Lord Jesus, warning the Church of Sardis, said: “Strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God” (Revelation 3:2). Friends, even with good works, if you do not watch' your doctrines may yet take you to hell fire if you fail to repent.

When you make a decree or prophecy and it does not come to pass, you should not be angry with God, neither seek a solution from the devil but watch! Ask the Lord, “What am I not doing well? What do you want me to do now?” Even I, as a friend of God, asked Him such questions many years ago after my midnight prayers—not because I did not see answers to my prayers, but to be sure I was standing well before Him. And He opened mine eyes to see certain things in which I needed to repent—things I was not mindful of.

Brethren, what the Lord Jesus showed me that faithful night in a dream shook me. I am already writing a book on that revelation, in fact, that was what prompted this book. I realized that had the trumpet sounded before that day, I would have missed heaven—God forbid! Friends, no matter the situation, do not make a vow unto God and fail to redeem it. “Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay” (Ecclesiastes 5:5). The Almighty says He does not have pleasure in fools (Ecclesiastes 5:4).

I had issues with making pledges to God and forgetting or delaying to redeem them. I also struggled with uncontrolled anger. But the fruit of the Spirit must be manifest in the life of every born-again Christian (Galatians 5:22-23). These are the things I repented of that day. He delivered me—because I was watching.

In that same dream, I saw that if the trumpet were to sound today, over 99% of those who profess to be “born-again Christians” would miss it. As I said, I am writing a book on that already. In that book, you will see why many “men of God” fall away from the faith without knowing. Many were warned by the Lord concerning their pride, tribalism, partiality, lack of genuine love, their direct or indirect stealing of God’s glory, their racism, their greed, their idolatry, their unforgiving spirit, their prosperity Gospel and many other things. Yet they were stubborn and refused to repent. That is why Apostle Paul warned: “he that thinks he is standing we’ll take heed” (1 Corinthians 10:12). Had Adam been watchful, he would have discerned that his beloved wife, Eve, was speaking by the order of Satan, and he would have rebuked her. Paul by the Holy Spirit discerned that the soothsayer in Philippi, who told everybody the truth about whom they were, was operating by a demonic spirit because he was watchful (Acts 16:16-18). Therefore, watch everything so that you will not walk in error, and regret it on the last day.

WATCH THE SPIRIT, YOURSELF
& THE MAN OF GOD

Chapter

ELEVEN

ANOTHER FOUNDATION / ANOTHER GOSPEL

Apostle Paul, writing to the Church in Galatia, said: “I marvel that you are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we (the Apostles) or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed” (Galatians 1:6-9). Again, he wrote to the Church in Corinth, saying: “According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed of how he buildeth thereupon. For another foundation can no man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ” (1 Corinthians 3:10-11). The foundation is finished. No man can add to it. The wise virgin built on the finished work with gold, silver, precious stones—the apostles doctrines (Act 2:42). The foolish try to lay another foundation with wood, hay, stubble—traditions and new revelations that contradict the Bible. It will burn (1 Corintians 3:13)

Friends, Paul forewarned us of all these false doctrines and practices that are everywhere today. And truly, these things point clearly to the times we are in—the end-time. I can only outline some of them in this epistle that every seed of God may be alert, and come out of error. We must walk in the perfect will of God, just as the Apostles did (Romans 12:2).

Hear this truth: those who repeat or attempt to recreate the sacrifice of the Lord Jesus on the Cross are blaspheming against God Almighty. The work was finished, and the Lord Jesus Himself declared: “It is finished” (John 19:30). Both Apostle Paul and Apostle Peter affirmed in the Scriptures that the atonement for our sins—His sacrifice—was done once and for all. It should never be repeated. No other sacrifice—whether burning of incense, burnt offerings, animal sacrifices or restitution is required again for the forgiveness of sins or for salvation. Consider these Scriptures: (Hebrews 7:27; 9:12; 10:10, 10:14; Romans 6:10; 1 Peter 3:18). As I said earlier ‘the wise virgins rest in Jesus' Sacrifice, and walk in the obedience. The foolish ones trust in their works to save them, or trust in grace to excuse disobedience. Christ finished the payment. The apostles' doctrine finished the pattern. You cannot add to the payment, and you cannot subtract from the pattern.

Friends, many wrong doctrines and practices have been going on in synagogues, temples, and churches, even before, during, and after the earthly ministry of Christ. But it is now exceedingly alarming in this end-time. People treat the communion wafer (the “host”) as though it was the very physical appearance of the Lord Jesus Himself, worthy of worship and adoration—it is idolatry. Many church folks focus on the outward ceremonies and practice rituals of communion rather than the spiritual significance of the communion. They erroneously hold the view that these rituals—borrowed from paganism—are necessary for salvation and forgiveness of sins whereas salvation is by faith in the Lord Jesus alone. All such practices are erroneous, and they lead to hell.

Again, those who put their faith in aprons, healing soaps, perfumes, candles, scapulars, or who prays with chaplets or “graven images”—even of the Cross—are idolaters. Some even believe in carrying so-called staff of office (crosier) as Moses did, or crosses, sometimes with images of a human on it, thinking it to be holy. These are clear acts of idolatry (Exodus 20:4-5).

Know it again: the Lord Jesus declared, “... God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth” (John 4:23-24). Not with ceremonial observances or rituals. It should be abundantly clear that the Lord Jesus is no longer on the Cross. He is risen, glorified, and has given us, the true believers, hope and victory (1 Corinthians 15:14, 55-57).

Praise the Lord!

Hallelujah!

Likewise, those who charge money to minister in the house of God, or those perpetual beggars who after evangelizing in motor parks or public palaces will turn around and begin to beg for money. Paul says that their belly is their God (Philippians 3: 18-19) or those so-called “men of God” who demand that people sow seeds to receive miracles—or who ask for payment before they can be seen—are obviously false prophets. The Bible says: “... freely ye have received, freely give” (Matthew 10:8).

As I said, some of them even demand reverence, requiring that people kneel before speaking with them. This is nothing but idolatry.

Furthermore, as servants of God in this era of grace, we are not commanded to wear white garments, robes, clergy collar, belts or sashes, priestly garments, or any religious regalia, as was required under the old covenant (1 Samuel 2:28). Besides the honour and worship of men that such garments often attract today (Matthew 23:5-10)—which this generation seeks—is not of God. The Apostles, who walked in the perfect will of God, sought no such things. And we know that there is no anointing attached to such garments.

“Again, those men wearing caps of any kind in church and women not covering their heads are serving disorderly. Paul declared: “But there is one thing I want you to know: The head of every man is Christ, the head of woman is man, and the head of Christ is God. Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head (Christ). But every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head—she is just like the woman who has her head shaved. For if a woman doesn't cover her head, she might as well have her hair cut off. But if it is shameful for a woman to have her hair cut off or her head shaved, then she should cover her head. A man should not wear anything on his head when he worships, for man is made in God's image and reflects God's glory. And the woman reflects man's glory” (1 Corinthians 11:3-7 NLT) Friends, Don't allow your title deceive you!”. As I said earlier, the clear difference between the foolish virgins and the wise virgins is this: the wise virgins love the truth, seeks it, and obey it, but the foolish virgins say it doesn't matter.

Beloved, hold fast to the truth and beware of another gospel and another foundation.

Amen.

IS MY TITLE BIBLICAL?

Friends, know this again: God Almighty will not share His glory with anyone (Isaiah 42:8). The Apostles laid the foundation for us and gave us five offices to operate in. They are apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers (Ephesians 4:11). But this generation is doing the opposite, inventing their own doctrines and practices—which will ultimately lead to destruction. Lord Jesus warned us in Luke 14:11 “For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he who humbles himself shall be exalted.”

Hear this truth: the word/title “Reverend” is never attributed to man in the Bible. That Holy name belongs only to God Almighty—YAHWEH, the One who exists by Himself. In Psalms 111:9 it is clearly written, “He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant forever: holy and reverend is his name.” Did you hear that! Holy and REVEREND is HIS name—it signifies the holy and awe-inspiring nature of God Almighty. He is the Creator of heaven and earth, the Commander of the armies of heaven, the Worker of wonders, the Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End, the Consuming Fire. In His NAME every knee must bow, in heaven and on earth. He alone is to be REVEREND, worshiped, and feared among men.

So, for any man to bear “Reverend,” “Holiness” or any other name or title that belongs to God alone is blasphemy. Such persons must repent and cry to God for mercy and forgiveness now, while mercy is still available.

Also, the word “Bishop” in the Bible refers simply to an overseer or leader in the church department (1 Timothy 3:1-13), not what people have turned it into today—where a man is exalted to the point of being worshipped in the name of “honor.” The Apostles, who walked in the perfect will of God, never practiced such exaltation of men. Likewise, a deacon in Scripture is to serve the church, and he must be a man of one wife—not single, and not female—but a man who fulfills God's order (1 Timothy 3:12). Hear this, any day you begin to see yourself as a special being; that is the day you die. Lord Jesus warned, “Remember therefore where you have fallen and repent” (Revelations 2:5). “Yes, in Psalm 82:6, we are called gods, and Lord Jesus Christ affirms this in John 10:34. However, this lordship enthronement is not for this present world. Revelation 19:16 reveals Jesus' title: “KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.” This celebration of Jesus reigning over us is in heaven, not here now. Verse 11 sets the scene: 'I saw heaven open, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True...' It is clear it will happen in heaven. Sadly, some have taken this lordship upon themselves, seeking worship and honour of men – that is blasphemy.

Again, those who directly or indirectly worship human beings—“good people,” or “saints”—in the name of celebration or honor should remember that whatever good we do is given to us by God, and only God is good. The truth is this: whatever good works we do are gifts of God's grace. David could not have written the book of Psalms and many other things if it had not been given to him by God. The same applies to Moses, Abraham, Elijah, Peter, John the beloved, and many others. Therefore, it is unnecessary, and sinful to name buildings, “Saint this” or Saint that,” or to make some people appear as co-redeemers. All glory and adoration belongs to God Almighty alone. Some even elevate their deceased loved ones, acknowledge their deeds, declare them “saints,” and mark special days to celebrate them. These reverences and veneration are clear idolatry. Let it be clear: No one is a co-redeemer but Jesus. Not even the 12 Apostles. For it is written in Acts 4:12 NIV- “Salvation is found in no one else...” 1 Timothy 2:5 NIV- "For there is one God and one mediator between God and mankind, the man Christ Jesus."

Friends, if you love God indeed and willing to obey Him, and you go ahead to seek Him with all your heart—you will find Him, and He will reveal the truth to you (Jeremiah 29:13; John 8:31-32). You will find Him just as the Apostles did. You will not be among those who are enemies of the Cross, whose belly is their god (Philippians 3:18-19), or among those seeking God for fame, titles, and worldly honor. Jesus said they love “greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues” (Luke 11:43). The Lord called them hypocrites and said, “In vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men” (Isaiah 29:13; Matthew 15:8-9).

Hear this again: There is no record in the Bible where God called a person to serve Him as an evangelist, then later changed him to pastor, then promoted him to senior pastor, then prophet, senior prophet, apostle, senior apostle, and so on. Such practices are not biblical and are wrong. As earlier stated, aside from deacons who serve the church, Apostle Paul gave us only five office in this grace era—what we call the fivefold ministry: apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers. For the perfecting of the saints for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: (Ephesians 4:11-12). Every other title men have created for “special honor” is man-made and erroneous—that is another gospel. We are not to seek the honor of men, but the honor of God. Yes, God Almighty will honour some people on the last day and it will not be because of their title. He is not a respecter of man (Romans 2:11, Acts 10:34) instead, it is for those who served well, who are humble indeed and have no room for pride or ego.

Friends, remember what the Lord said; “I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images” (Isaiah 42:8). Today, as we can see many give glory to men, graven images, and some people enjoy being addressed with titles like “God’s General.” Just know it:

Nobody is “God's General” as people proclaim. All who are truly born again—whether young or old—you are simply a servant of God.

Apostle Paul, writing to Timothy, said, “Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ” (2 Timothy 2:3). Paul described the young Epaphroditus as “my brother, and companion in labour, and fellowsoldier” (Philippians 2:25)—not “God's general”—because of his steadfastness, work, and sufferings for the faith. In greeting sister Apphia and others who labored in Philemon's house fellowship, Paul called Archippus a soldier (Philemon 1:2; Colossians 4:17). He acknowledged both the young and old who labored to keep the work of God going—but none were called God's generals.

Let us know our roles and our boundaries as children of God that we may not, directly or indirectly, share in God's glory.

“He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches”.

Chapter

TWELVE

WOMEN'S MINISTRY: WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY?

Friends, now that we have the Bible, we have no excuse if we do not walk orderly by following the Scriptures' guidelines in serving God. We are founded on the apostles' doctrine, and Jesus Christ himself is the chief cornerstone" (Ephesians 2:20). We ought to follow the footsteps of the Apostles, as they followed Christ. Apostle Paul was very clear on how the Church of God should be run. There is no such office in Scripture as Pastor (Mrs.), Deaconess, Apostle (Mrs.), Mother in Israel, and the like. These are false doctrines, and they lead to hell fire.

Paul declared that "If a man desires the office of a bishop (to oversee the church or department) he desires a good work. A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife..." (1 Timothy 3:1-2). Did you hear that! Not a woman with one husband. Even our Lord Jesus did not ordain any female apostle, and the apostles, following the Lord's pattern, did not do otherwise. Why? Because in the church assembly, women are not permitted to exercise authority over men,... (1 Timothy 2:11-14). Paul explained further, “For Adam was first formed, then Eve. And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression” (1 Timothy 2:13-14).

Now, in Galatians 3:28, Paul says: “There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.” This means we are all one in Christ, without discrimination. Friends, following God's guidelines is required of us. The Apostles followed Jesus' laid-down pattern, and that did not in any way bring discrimination to them, but rather promotion in God's sight.

In administration within the church, a pastor functions as a pastor, a prophet as a prophet, and likewise in all other offices. Even though we are one in Christ (salvation), yet by divine design, a man cannot carry a child in the womb; so also in church leadership, there is order. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church (Ephesians 5:23, 1 Corinthians 11:3). This divine order does not make the woman inferior but complements the purpose of God for creation.

Being one in Christ means this: Whosoever believeth on Him (whether male, female, or children) shall not be ashamed (Romans 10:11). And again: “For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon Him” (Romans 10:12).

Understand it clearer this way: in church gatherings today, we count men, women, and children together as one congregation, and in sharing material things, all partake equally. But in the days of old, it was not so—they counted only the men. When our Lord Jesus fed the multitudes, they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children (Matthew 14:21; 15:32-39).

Consider also: when the people heard Jesus preach in His hometown, they said, “Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?” (Mark 6:3). The names of His brothers were mentioned, but the sisters were not named, for such was the custom. But now that grace hath fully come, all are counted together. Grace brought inclusiveness and orderliness. The supernatural ability to walk in order is part of what grace brought—not only unmerited favour.

If it were the will of God for women to be ordained Apostles, the Lord Jesus would have done so, seeing the many godly women who followed and ministered unto Him—Mary Magdalene, Virgin Mary, Mary the sister of Lazarus, the woman with the alabaster box, Elizabeth, and others. Yet He did not ordain any of them as Apostles. That alone should speak volumes to us. Even the 12 Tribes of Israel were all led by Men (named after the sons of Jacob) Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asher, Issachar, Zebulun, Joseph, Benjamin, (Genesis 49:28).

Friends, there are guidelines in serving God in the old and New Testament. It must be according to His instructions and pattern; else it is not acceptable unto Him. For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints” (1 Corinthians 14:33).

Grace did not bring disorder but brought holiness and righteousness in the fear of God. The Lord Jesus said, “For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven” (Matthew 5:20). Our faith must be genuine—flowing from a transformed heart—and we must live according to God's kingdom principles. The Lord also taught us to pray, "Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven" (Matthew 6:10). And He said, "For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of Him that sent me" (John 6:38).

It is therefore our responsibility to do God's will here on earth. Paul wrote, "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling" (Philippians 2:12). We are accountable to God for how we live and serve Him.

Remember Saul: he did not fully obey God's specific instructions and was rejected (1 Samuel 13:8-14). On the other hand, Noah and Moses followed God's detailed instructions in building the Ark (Genesis 6:13-22) and the tabernacle (Exodus 25:31; 39:42--43). Their obedience pleased God. The lesson is clear: God requires complete obedience from His servants. Our Lord Jesus testified, "And he that sent me is with me: the Father has not left me alone; for I always do the things that pleases him" (John 8:29). So let us follow Jesus' lay down pattern in serving him.

Friends, don't aspire after titles or seek promotion among men. Do not join a church simply because it is popular or new. Watch and do as commanded by God. If you are not called by God into one of the five-fold ministries (Ephesians 4:11), rejoice and be content, for you can serve God and make heaven without bearing any title. Those who were in the upper room on the Day of Pentecost received the Holy Spirit and will go to heaven—and many of them had no title nor special title (Acts 2:1-4, Romans 8:9, 8:14, 11:29). So you can see that it's not about title or fame. Don't be among the foolish virgins.

Be watchful. Watch your heart. Watch your motives. Examine everything starting with you.

"He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches".

Chapter

THIRTEEN

THE KEYS OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN

The Lord said to Peter “And I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven.”

Friends, understand this—it is not physical keys that He was speaking about, and not just a key, but keys. Let us know what these keys are as stated in Matthew 16:13-19. But first, bear in mind that the knowledge of the truth, the revelation of eternal life, is secret and progressive. The Lord Jesus said to Apostle John, “Come up hither; (come up for further revelation) and I will shew thee (reveal) things which must be hereafter” (Revelation 4:1). Therefore, don't stop seeking growth in understanding and for further revelations.

The Lord Jesus asked His disciples, “Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?” And they answered, “Some say that thou art John the Baptist; some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.” They did not get it. Then He asked them directly, “But who says ye that I am?” Simon Peter answered and said, “Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

Now, take careful note of Jesus' response to Peter, for herein is deep revelation:

“Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, (no human revealed this truth to you) but my Father which is in heaven” (Matthew 16:17). Meaning, no man gave you this knowledge—it was revealed by God Almighty Himself.

Then Jesus said, “And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter...” (The word Peter here is from the Greek Petros, meaning a small rock). But He continued, “and upon this rock I will build my church...” (The rock here refers to revelation—the revealed truth—not Peter the man). The Church of God is built upon revelation— “And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free” (John 8:32).

And this church is not a building or a denomination, but the people—those who have received the truth by revelation from the Holy Ghost. It includes Peter, the Apostles, me, you if it so be that you got it or anyone whom the Spirit of God hath revealed the truth of eternal life to. This very epistle you are reading is an example of a Holy Ghost-inspired revelation.

The Lord Jesus continued, “And the gates of hell shall not prevail against it”—it here refers to revelation not human. The accuser of the brethren cannot defeat revelation, because it is of God. The Holy Ghost will reveal these mysteries to the chosen (Mark 4:11).

He then said, “And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven...” (thee here refers to Peter, and by extension, to anyone who receives divine revelation by the Holy Ghost). The keys are revelations—not physical keys. Eternal life revelation knowledge is the keys to the kingdom of heaven. All the Apostles served God by revelation, "Paul, by Revelation, wrote the epistles and declared, "Whoever thinks he's spiritual must acknowledge these epistles, a commandment of God" (1 Corinthians 14:37). And remember: any true revelation today as I said earlier, must never contradict the Scriptures, for the Bible is our guide. The Lord continue and say,

"And whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven" (Matthew 16:19). The whatsoever in this context refers to revelation. It is not specifically about forgiveness of sins here, but revelation. Any revelation you bind here—by not releasing it—is bound also in heaven.

For example, the Lord said concerning Moses: "Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so" (Matthew 19:8). Moses sealed (or bound) certain truths because of their unbelief, and heaven acknowledged that. But now that the Lord Jesus has come with grace and truth (John 1:17), He revealed what had been hidden.

To Apostle John, He commanded: "Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand..." (Revelation 22:10). If John had sealed (bound) it, it would have been bound even in heaven. That's why He said to him, "Seal it not."

Even I, to whom God hath revealed these truths, if I bind them by keeping them hidden and refuse to declare them to the public, they shall remain bound in heaven. And the consequences are like that of the parable of the talents. The servant who received one talent and hid it was cast into outer darkness (Matthew 25:29-30).

Consider Jonah: if he had refused to preach to Nineveh, the people would have been destroyed, and Jonah himself nearly perished for withholding the message (Jonah 1:1-2; 3:1-10).

Even you that read this message: if God hath revealed to you the truth to correct the false doctrines and practices present in many churches today—as you now receive from this epistle and more—do not keep it secret, so long as it aligns with Scripture. Let us “do the work of an evangelist” (2 Timothy 4:5), whether men will endure the truth or not. For we ought to obey God rather than men (Acts 5:29).

Friends, we can now see that our faith must grow to the level of revelation to be perfected. The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; and he will shew them his covenant (Psalm 25:14). Let us labour for that revelation and boldly declare it as commanded by God.

THE STAGES OF FAITH

Friends, our faith in Christ hath three stages; but many stop at stage one, some stop at stage two, while the overcomers attain to stage three, which is the victory and final stage. These stages are as follow:

1. Believe and Trust God:

This initial stage involves having confidence in God's existence, His goodness, and His promises. Some receive answers to their prayers easily at this level; many at this stage do miracles, signs, and wonders. They move mountains. It is the foundation of faith, where one begins to trust God.

2. Believe, Trust, and Obey God:

At this stage, faith deepens as one commits to follow God's commands and principles. Obedience becomes a natural response to one's faith, which indeed is good, but many at this stage obey in error. As you read this book to the end, you will understand and come out of error.

3. Believe, Trust, and Know God by Revelation:

This final stage, which only the winners attain, faith transcends mere obedience and entrance into the realm of intimate knowledge and understanding of the will of God. Here, one receives revelations of eternal life, divine insights, and spiritual discernment, total submission to God becomes one's joy.

Abraham practiced these three stages of faith. He believed and trusted that the promises of God would surely manifest; he believed that he would have a son despite his advanced age, and also that he would become the father of a great Nation. This foundational faith was accounted unto Abraham for righteousness (Genesis 15:6; James 2:23).

Now, the first stage led to the second stage—Believe, Trust, and Obey. Abraham's second stage of faith moved him to obey God and to depart from his home in Ur, journeying to a land unknown, which God promised to show him (Genesis 12:1-4). He believed God even to the point of offering up Isaac as commanded.

The first and second stages of Abraham's faith led to the third and final stage—the victory stage. This was when God began to reveal secrets unto him. The revelation stage of faith was seen when God revealed unto Abraham the impending destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah (Genesis 18:17-33). Even so, in these end times, only the elect shall know of the imminent return of the Lord Jesus and of the destruction soon to come upon this wicked world. These chosen ones not only know and preach these truths but also fear God indeed, just as the Apostles did—and as Job, of whom the Almighty God was proud (Job 1:8).

Apostle Paul in like manner says, “The just shall live by faith” (Hebrews 10:38). The faith here is by revelation, not mere belief. Paul, by revelation, declared, “For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth” (Romans 1:17-18). Without revelation, you cannot please God. This is what he meant when he said, “from faith to faith”—from revelation to revelation (Romans 1:17).

Paul further declared in Hebrews 11:3-4, “Through faith (by revelation) we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God. By faith (by revelation) Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice to God than Cain...” He proceeded to let us know how Noah built the Ark by revelation, and how others in that same chapter of Hebrews served God acceptably by revelation faith. Paul after hearing of the Ephesians church's strong faith and love toward believers, continually prayed that God should give them the spirit of Wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Christ (Ephesians 1:15-17), that is knowing God by revelation.

Lord Jesus stated that the secrets of the kingdom of God have been revealed only to the elect (Mark 4:11). The elect—also called the chosen—are they who shall understand this epistle. Why? Because they love the truth, they seek it, and they practice it. They are the wise virgins. O Lord thank you for all these revelations.

THE 9-GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Friends, in this grace era, for a church to function effectively, and not live in ignorance and in error, it is fundamental that, alongside the 5-fold ministry, the 9-gifts of the holy spirit must be in operational within it, Apostle Paul listed them in 1 Corinthians 12:8-10 as follows:

- Word of Wisdom (Sophia in Greek): The grace to receive and apply divine wisdom in all situations—providing insight and guidance for making right decisions and resolving difficult matters.
- Word of Knowledge (Gnosis): The supernatural ability to receive and share divine knowledge and insight. It helps believers to understand and apply biblical truths and provides discernment in spiritual matters.
- Faith (Pistis): This is the grace to believe and trust God in difficult circumstances and to take bold steps in obedience to God's will. This corresponds to the first stage of faith, as earlier explained.
- Gifts of Healing (Iamata): The grace to receive divine healing virtue—to restore physical, emotional, and spiritual health to individuals through the power of God.
- Working of Miracles (Dunamis): The supernatural ability to perform mighty works and wonders, demonstrating the awesome power of God, and bringing glory to His Name.
- Prophecy (Propheteia): The divine ability to receive and declare messages from God, to edify, exhort, and comfort the church.

- Discerning of Spirits (Diakrisis Pneumaton): The supernatural ability to distinguish between spirits, whether they be of God or of devils, providing safety and purity in spiritual operations.
- Divers Kinds of Tongues (Glossolalia): The grace to speak languages that are unknown for communicating with God in the Spirit, and for personal edification (1 Corinthians 14:4).
- Interpretation of Tongues (Hermeneia Glosson): The divine ability to interpret messages spoken in tongues so that the entire church may be edified and understand the message given by the Spirit. So, if your church is of God, the people with these gifts are within it. Let's discover them and allow them to use their God-given gifts!, let's strive to serve God acceptably (Hebrew 12:28-29).

Chapter

FOURTEEN

THE GOODNESS OF GOD AND HIS JUDGEMENT

Our God is good all the time. Yes, the Lord Jesus Himself said, “There is none good but one, that is, God” (Mark 10:18). He is righteous, Holy, gracious, kind—and also a consuming fire. He is the only merciful, loving, and God of Justice. (Psalm 96:13; Deuteronomy 32:4). Yet many people—even “believers”—have misunderstood this uniqueness of God. That is why they say: “God loves you the way you are.” They believe that whatsoever a man does—even after believing in Christ—God is good enough to receive and accommodate it. But hear the truth.

Just know it again, that our Lord is good and also a God of justice. He was good when He destroyed the generation of Noah with a flood after their wickedness and evil works (Genesis 6:14-22; 7:23). He was good when He destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah with fire after their sin and abominations (Geneses 19:1-24). Yes, He judged them based on their conscience alone, unlike this generation that has the Bible, the blood of Jesus, the Holy Ghost, and preachers of the true Gospel yet refuse to repent of their sins and reject the true Gospel of Christ.

The Lord Jesus reminded us in Luke 17:27-30 how the people were busy marrying, and giving in marriage (as is also happening now), until Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. He continued and said, “Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded” (even as is happening now), “but the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.” And the Lord said, “Even so shall it be on the day when the Son of man is revealed.” He also said in Mathew 7:22-24 “Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? And in thy name have cast out devils? And in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I prophess unto them, I never knew you, depart from me ye that work iniquity, Therefor whosoever heareth these saying of mine, and doeth them, (obey them) I will linken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock.” In verse 26 He says: “And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, (refuse to obey) shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: So, let us not take the goodness of God for granted.

Do not forget what transpired in heaven when Satan rebelled against the Almighty God, and he was cast out of heaven. The Lord God said, “Evil will not dwell in my sight.” (Psalm 5:4-5, Revelation 12:7-9, and Isaiah 14:12–15, Mark 9:43:48) God is holy and will not accommodate evil practices in his kingdom.

God was good when He destroyed twenty-three thousand Israelites in one day because they committed fornication and sinned against Him—even after He had delivered them from Pharaoh's bondage. Apostle Paul declared that these things happened as examples for us, the “believers,” who will turn back to their vomit to live in unrighteousness. (1 Corinthians 10:3-12).

Just know it again, beloved, that God Almighty will not accommodate sinners in His kingdom.

Now, who is a sinner? As I have said before in this epistle, a sinner is that person who rejects Christ or those who believe but continue to live in sin and disobedience (Matthew 7:21-26). Apostle John says that those who are born of God (born again indeed) do not commit sin (practice sin) and that whoever continues to live in sin is a child of the devil (1 John 3:8-9).

The destruction that took place of old shows us how God Almighty operates. He says, “I am the LORD, I change not” (Malachi. 3:6). He did not tolerate evil then in the Old Testament, and He will not tolerate it now. And herein is my joy—that evil shall not be accommodated in the kingdom of our God. Peter reminded us how God didn't spare the angels who sinned, nor the people of Noah's generation, nor Sodom and Gomorah's inhabitants, He saved only Lot. He says all these are examples for us, lest we turn back to our vomit and follow false prophets, whose end is destruction (2 Peter 2:2-7).

The Lord Jesus says, “But rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell” (Matthew 10:28). Hear this! If God Almighty were to overlook wickedness and not pour His wrath upon the ungodly—including false believers—then even heaven itself would no longer be a good place to dwell; for the perverse-minded would pollute it. But God forbid. Evil shall not enter into His holy habitation.

But for those who are truly born again, the Apostles are our examples. They followed the Lord Jesus' pattern, which is doing the will of God at all times. So also shall we, by the help of the Holy Spirit do his will.

As we await the return of our Lord, more and more evil shall abound, but we, the children of God, remain watchful and steadfast. We are build on the foundation of the apostles and prophets (Ephesians 2:20, Act 2:42). He that hath ear, let him hear what the Spirit is saying to the Churches.

Chapter

FIFTEEN

CHRISTMAS / BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS

There are many reasons why people celebrate Christmas, but the obvious one is that the Saviour of the world was born, whose name is Jesus Christ, and they deem it necessary to mark His birthday, which is called Christmas. Many use the period to show love in various ways—exchanging gifts, having fun, visiting loved ones, and so on. And indeed, when one looks at the outward display of love shown by people during Christmas, it seems good and reasonable. But the truth is that every genuine born again Christian must serve God acceptably (Hebrews 12:28-29; Romans 12:1). We must walk in the perfect will of God, not just the permissive will (Romans 12:2; Ephesians 5:15-17).

It is clear that the Apostles followed the teachings and pattern of our Master Jesus Christ indeed, and so must we. Lord Jesus said to those that believed in Him, “If ye continue in my word, (my teaching) then are ye my disciples indeed” (John 8:31). It is therefore clear that Jesus came to raise disciples, not just mere believers (John 8:29-31). Doing otherwise will make our service to God vain and may become a stumbling block to us.

Now, the question is: Did Jesus celebrate His birthday? The answer is NO! There is no record of such in the Bible. Again, did the Apostles, who walked in the perfect will of God, celebrate His birthday—or even their own? The answer again is NO! Another question is: Were we commanded to celebrate His birthday? The answer is NO!

Furthermore, 25th December was not the date of CHRIST's birth, for the Bible gave no such record. Therefore, that date is false, and true Christians do not forge dates for sacred events. Now, what then was being celebrated on 25th December? History reveals that it was the Roman festival of Sol Invictus, meaning “Unconquered sun God,” celebrated on that day to commemorate the rebirth of the sun god. Another idol worshipped on that same date is Mithras, a god of “light” and fertility. Some Roman cults celebrated this idol on that day, while others worshipped Baal, a fertility god.

Now, another question: If I do not celebrate Christmas, have I sinned? NO! Again, if I celebrate Christmas, have I sinned? YES. Why? Because I am not serving God according to the laid down foundation of the Apostles and the pattern of Jesus' life as a true disciple.

Have you also considered the atrocities committed during the Christmas period? Even modern birthday celebrations have been characterized by human praises and worship in the name of honor—which is idolatry. As I often say to my family and brethren, “Every day is my birthday and a new day to thank God for His mercies.” David said, “I will bless the LORD at all times: His praise shall continually be in my mouth” (Psalm 34:1).

Now, do we have any record of those who celebrated their birthdays in the Bible? Yes. The first was Pharaoh; what happened on that day? He restored his chief butler and hanged his chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted (Genesis 40:20-22). The second was Herod Antipas; on his birthday, he beheaded John the Baptist (Matthew 14:6-12; Mark 6:21-28). The other record of birthdays was concerning Job's sons, who feasted on their days (Job 1:4), but Job himself did not mark his own birthday.

It is clear, then, that the role models of birthday celebrations in the Bible are workers of iniquity, coupled with the wickedness that oftentimes takes place during such celebrations. The modern-day evils associated with birthday celebrations are often hidden, and only those who have the spirit of discernment that can see the human worship and praises of men that go on during such times. I myself was once guilty of such, but Christ saved me and opened the eyes of my understanding.

So, what then are we commanded to do in remembrance of our Lord Jesus? After blessing the bread and wine (which is the Passover, often called the “Last Supper,” and also known as Holy Communion), He gave it to His disciples and said, “Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me” (1 Corinthians 11:24-25; Luke 22:19-20). Therefore, it is this “Last Supper” celebration—the Holy Communion—that we are commanded to do in remembrance of Christ's sacrifice and victory—not Christmas or the Stations of the Cross, as men have devised.

Friends, there is nothing wrong in thanking God for a new day or for adding another year to your life, but it is better done privately between you and your God, to avoid all the human worship, pride, and unnecessary attractions that often accompany such occasions. This is why our Lord Jesus Christ did not encourage it, nor did the Apostles, because God will not share His glory with any man (Isaiah 42:8). O Lord, we thank you for all these revelations, which only the elect shall understand.

Chapter

SIXTEEN

SATURDAY / SUNDAY WORSHIP

Friends, there are practices under the Law that are still to be observed even in this era of grace, such as sowing and reaping. “While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease” (Genesis 8:22). The Lord Jesus Himself said, “Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again” (Luke 6:38). And so also, if you sow evil, you will reap evil, even in this era of grace. Apostle Peter says, “But let none of you suffer as a murderer, (that’s reaping the evil you sowed) or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men’s matters” (1 Peter 4:15). So, these laws of life were observed both in the Old Testament and in the New Testament.

But “Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot” (Exodus 21:24)—that is, paying evil for evil—was practiced under the Old Testament. The Lord Jesus came and nullified that. He said, “Whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also” (Matthew 5:39). He went further and said, “Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you” (Matthew 5:44). Apostle Paul, in agreement, says, “Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not” (Romans 12:14). So, grace brought forgiveness and true love.

Now, concerning the matter of Saturday worship (the Sabbath day), which was observed as a day of rest and worship, The Lord Jesus fulfilled that law. He healed a man with a withered hand on the Sabbath (Matthew 12:9–14; Mark 3:1–5). He also healed the woman with the bent back on the Sabbath (Luke 13:10–17). Again, He healed the man born blind on the Sabbath day (John 9:1–41). So, the Lord Jesus was working on Saturdays. He said, “For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day” (Matthew 12:8). He rebuked the Sabbath day observers for their hypocrisy, asking, “What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out? How much then is a man better than a sheep?” (Matthew 12:11–12).

So then, He nullified the Sabbath day keeping with its hypocritical observance.

Why then do we worship on Sunday? After the death of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ on the Cross, He resurrected on Sunday, the first day of the week. His resurrection brought us hope and victory (Matthew 28:1–10; John 20:1–10). That is why the early Christians gathered together on Sundays, not on the Sabbath day, to worship God (Acts 20:7; 1 Corinthians 16:2). This Sunday worship, also known as the Lord's Day, continues to this day. We, the Christians who are saved by grace, celebrate our Lord on His resurrection day, which is Sunday, and that is right and acceptable.

ATONEMENT FOR SIN:

ANIMAL SACRIFICE VS THE BLOOD OF JESUS

As highlighted earlier in the article, “another foundation, another gospel.” For forgiveness of sin to happen in the Old Testament, animal sacrifices were necessary for the atonement of sin. The blood of an animal had to be shaded by a priest but those sacrifices could only cover sin (Leviticus 1:3-7). However, the sacrifice of our Lord Jesus Christ on the Cross nullified the Old Covenant practice and established a New Covenant (Hebrews 10:1-8). John the Baptist declared, “Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world” (John 1:29). Apostle Paul explained that we are justified by Jesus' sacrifice on the Cross (Romans 3:24-25). The death of Jesus satisfied the requirements of the Old Covenant, which was not perfect, rendering animal sacrifices invalid, unnecessary, and simultaneously sinful (Hebrews 8:13; 10:18). Lord Jesus Himself declared, “It is finished”—meaning “Paid in full” (John 19:30). Any form of worship that requires the shading of animal blood undermines the precious work at Calvary. It is unnecessary and sinful.

Therefore, all that is required of us in this New Covenant is faith in the finished work on the Cross and obedience to God's truth—that is, following the teachings and examples of Jesus Christ and surrendering to the guidance of the Holy Ghost. But today, many believe, yet they walk in error, which is deception and spiritual darkness. It leads to separation from God and His truth. Those of us who are true believers should stand firm on God's word, resist deception and false teachings, and obey the truth even when it is challenging or unpopular. We remain vigilant, knowing that the road to heaven is narrow as our Lord Jesus Himself said in Matthew 7:13-14.

Chapter

SEVENTEEN

ALTER CALL / BORNE AGAIN

Be a disciple of Christ (Mark 16:15–16)

My brothers and sisters, let us give God our love and our whole hearts, for He first loved us (John 3:16; 1 John 4:19). It is only in Him that true love, righteousness, peace, and joy are found, and above all, eternal life (Romans 14:17).

If you are still living in sin, know that God sent His Son, Jesus Christ, who paid the price for your sins and mine. Why not repent with godly sorrow today, for tomorrow may be too late? Invite Him into your life with all your heart. Allow Him to be your Lord and Saviour and you shall begin to enjoy the newness of life in Christ Jesus with grace to live holy and righteous. For as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God... (John 1:12).

If you desire to surrender your life to Christ, I invite you to pray this prayer sincerely:

Lord Jesus, I acknowledge that I am a sinner. I am sorry for my sins. Please forgive me. I believe and confess that You died on the cross and rose from the dead to set me free. Lord, give me grace to love You and to love my neighbor, as I love Myself and to be Your disciple all the days of my life. I pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

Chapter

EIGHTEEN

THE GODHEAD VS TRINITY & PROPER WATER BAPTISM

Now that you have confessed Jesus as your Lord and Saviour, that is beautiful. But know that there are steps and processes to follow to become His disciple indeed. If you have said that prayer from your heart, please go for correct WATER and HOLY GHOST BAPTISM, that you may be endued with power for the race and for the continuation process of your new birth.

Why is that essential? Now that you believe, Lord Jesus said, “He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned” (Mark 16:16). Again, the Lord Jesus told Nicodemus, “Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God” (John 3:3). He went further to emphasize the significance of water and Holy Ghost baptism, saying, “Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God” (John 3:5).

And all true baptism must be done in the NAME of Lord Jesus Christ, as the Apostles did baptize in His NAME. “Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost” (Acts 2:38). Again, when Peter preached to the household of Cornelius, as they believed, he emphasized on the indispensability of baptism and said, “Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we?” And he commanded them to be baptized in the NAME of the Lord (Acts 10:47-48). “And now why tarriest thou? Arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the NAME of the Lord” (Acts 22:16).

Here are more scriptures that reveal the significance of baptism, the pattern, and confirm that the Apostles, including Paul, baptized believers in the NAME of the Lord Jesus (Acts 8:16; Acts 19:1-6; Romans 6:3-6; Galatians 3:26-27; 1 Corinthians 12:13). Now, in Matthew 28:19, after the finished work of the cross, the Lord Jesus, rising from the dead, commanded His disciples, “Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the NAME of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost”. Brethren, those three mentioned are one, for it is written, “The Lord our God is one Lord” (Deuteronomy 6:4; Mark 12:29)—not three in one.

Now, what is the NAME? It is JESUS CHRIST! He is the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. He asked us to baptize in the NAME—not to repeat what He said, but to obey what He meant. Lord Jesus while explaining further that He is the three, said: “I am come in my Father's name, (what is the NAME? Jesus) and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own NAME, him ye will receive (John 5:43). Again he said in John 14-26, “But the Comforter, which is the HOLY-GHOST, whom the Father will send in my NAME (what is the NAME? Jesus) he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. For clarity on Jesus being the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, see the prophecy in Isaiah 9:6: “For unto us a child is born, unto us son is given: and the government shall be his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.” See also John 14:7-11. God almighty Continuously made it clear in entire Isaiah 45, that he is God and beside him there is no other God, in verse 5 he says, “I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God besides me: I guided thee though thou hast not known me: Paul, writing to the Corinthian church, says, “...God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself...” (2 Corinthians 5:19). See also John 1:1. Again, Paul said to the Galatians, “And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father” (Galatians 4:6). “Jesus said, ‘The first commandment is: Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord’ (Mark 12:29)—One God. Even the Scribe agreed, ‘The Lord is one God’ (Mark 12:32-33) not 3 in one. “For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily (Colossians 2:9). Friends, you can see that the so called TRINITY is another gospel, God is not three. God is one and He came as a human and now living in us as spirit, see, even the devil knew and believed that God is one, not two or three God's in one (James 2:19).

The Lord Jesus Himself told Philip, “He that hath seen me hath seen the Father... I am in the Father, and the Father in me” (John 14:9-10). One God, not three Gods in one, see also John 10:30 and verse 38. In Revelation 1:8 it is writing, “I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending; Saith the Lord, which is, and which is to come, the Almighty.” Did you get that? (The Almighty). He said to Thomas, “...and henceforth ye have known him, (the Father) and have seen him (John 14:7)

Apostle John also affirmed, “For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one” (1 John 5:7). And he continued, “There are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one” (1 John 5:8)—agree in one NAME, Jesus.

In John 3:18, the Lord Jesus says, “He that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the NAME of the only begotten Son of God” (emphasizing baptism in His NAME). Apostle Peter paraphrased this in Acts 4:12: “Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other NAME under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.”

Paul wrote to the Colossians, “And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the NAME of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him” (Colossians 3:17). Note, “before the foundation of the world, God’s agenda was redemption knowing man would fall (1 Peter 1:19-20). God almighty came as a person to redeem man, declaring “Let us make man in our image” (Genesis 1:26). He said, “This is my beloved Son... listen to him” (Matthew 17:5). He’s the Archangel of revelation 10. Paul also calls Jesus “the Great God” (Titus 2:13) for more clarification. There’s nowhere it is written we are Alpha and Omega—rather, it’s “I am Alpha and Omega” (Revelation 1:18). Saying the Holy Ghost is a separate personality, or declaring “God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit” undermines God’s Almightyness—that’s blasphemy. So, as said earlier, Trinity is another gospel. “It is One God, not three Gods in one, who manifests in three offices for redemption.”

Friends, the Apostles understood the message of the Lord Jesus very well. They went about preaching the gospel of reconciliation, calling people to repent of their sins and turn to Christ the Saviour. As they did, they baptized them in the NAME of the Lord Jesus Christ—without delay—to fulfill the scriptures.

That was their way of altar call, and it was perfect. "So for those of us who have the opportunity to be properly baptized – we have no excuse. We can't compare ourselves to the thief crucified with Jesus who didn't have the privilege of baptism nor heard about it. However he fulfilled that command, he, on the Cross identified with Christ in his burial, signifying he was dying with Him. So Jesus promised him resurrection unto life—eternal life (Luke 23:39-43). And baptism symbolically signifies dying with Christ (Romans 6:3-11) and being raised to new life! He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches."

NOW THAT WE KNOW THE TRUTH, WHAT SHOULD WE DO?

We are to repent and correct those wrong doctrines and practices. All baptisms that were done by saying, "in the NAME of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost," must be corrected to be done in the NAME of Jesus Christ. When Apostle Paul came to Ephesus and saw some "believers" who had been baptized wrongly, he told them the truth concerning the significance of proper baptism. They repented, and he re-baptized them in the NAME of the Lord Jesus (Acts 19:1–6).

Another correction we, the disciples of the Lord Jesus, must make is that baptism is not by sprinkling water on a person's head. Nowhere in the Bible did the Apostles baptize by sprinkling water on a believer's head. John the Baptist also baptized Jesus in the River Jordan, and the Apostles were baptizing in rivers all through their ministries.

"Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus. And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him” (Acts 8:35–38).

However, in a case where no river is nearby, a large body of water such as a swimming pool is acceptable. What baptism symbolizes is to identify with Jesus in His burial, and to rise with Him in His resurrection from death. That is, it is washing away our old nature symbolically, “Peter says it is for remission of sins” (Act 2:38) or putting it this way, burying the old nature and putting on the new nature in Christ Jesus. See also the prophecy on baptism in Ezekiel 36:25–27, where the LORD promised us a new life entirely after baptism. This is a spiritual matter, and a carnal man will not understand it.

Again, infant baptism is also wrong, as it requires repentance and believing in the Lord Jesus for anyone to be qualified for baptism. Neither John the Baptist nor the Apostles baptized children, and even our Lord Jesus Christ was baptized as an adult, leaving us an example. Jesus said to John, “Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness” (Matthew 3:15). Heaven was opened to Jesus. After His baptism, the Holy Ghost descended upon Him, and the Father confirmed Him as the beloved Son:

“And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased” (Matthew 3:16–17).

So, we must all be baptized in the NAME of Jesus Christ.

Now, why didn't the Lord Jesus baptize anyone? (John 4:2) It is because all true baptism is to be done in His NAME, and He cannot say, “I baptize you in the NAME of the Lord Jesus,” for He is that very person—the only Saviour. Friends, all this knowledge and more are the secrets of the kingdom of heaven (Matt 13: 11).

O Lord, thank You for all these revelations, which only the wheat (the elect) will understand. Amen.

Chapter

NINETEEN

THE LORD SAID, I WILL HAVE MERCY..... BUT ON WHO?

The Almighty God, while conversing with Moses, said, “...And I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy” (Exodus 33:19). Apostle Paul also wrote, “It is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy” (Romans 9:16). Friends, many do not understand these scriptures, but the clarification is this: God Almighty shows mercy to those who love Him (Exodus 20:6). Who are they? Psalm 103:11 says, ‘For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.’ Verse 13 adds, ‘Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.’ Verses 17-18 explain that those who fear Him are those who obey His commands and do what pleases Him. As Psalm 128:1 says, ‘Blessed are those who fear the Lord, who walk in his ways’. And Proverbs 9:10 says, ‘The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom’... Many are called, but few are chosen (Matthew 22:14), yes, God Almighty hath chosen those few who truly love Him—they are those who believe, follow, and obey Him continually (John 3:16, 3:21; Luke 9:23; John 14:15–17; Ephesians 1:4–9). Yes, there are vessels unto dishonour (2 Timothy 2:20)—they are the workers of iniquity (Matthew 7:23, 2 Peter 1:2), abusers of grace who pervert the truth (Acts 20:29–30); such shall not obtain mercy. They are marked for hell (Jude 4), same fate awaits those who continue in sin and disobedience after believing in Christ—they are the foolish virgins (1 John 3:8; 1 Corinthians 6:9–10). But He giveth more grace to the humble (James 4:6).

Apostle Peter said, “Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: But in every nation he that feareth Him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with Him” (Acts 10:34–35). We, the children of God, know that God Almighty is not partial. It is by foreknowledge that God declared His displeasure against Esau even before he was born, for He knew Esau would be rebellious (Malachi 1:2–3). Likewise Pharaoh—God knew that Pharaoh would not repent genuinely, and that's why He even hardened his heart to demonstrate His power on him who hated God. (Romans 9:17–18). This situation is similar with false prophets and Antichrists—they shall not obtain mercy, because no matter how you preach the truth to them, they will not repent nor change their doctrines. Rather, they will defend their lies and even criticize the truth. The Lord said, “And I gave her space to repent of her fornication (false doctrines); and she repented not” (Revelation 2:21).

Just know that God Almighty will not force anyone to love or obey Him. He will even send strong delusions and stumbling blocks to the haters of truth (2 Thessalonians 2:9–10). Paul's arrest and conversion on the road to Damascus was not by force nor by compulsion, but by foreknowledge. God knew he was His vessel, and did it that way to confound the wise (Acts 9:1–31). Such may not happen to every vessel of God; that is why we evangelize.

Even as I worked in ignorance; I was a committed churchgoer, always available in church activities, often going very early in the morning daily, even under the rain, rejoicing. But what led to my salvation—being genuinely born again—was troubles. Later, I backslid, that was around 1990's, but greater troubles brought me back to God after some years. Yet, during those days I had backslidden, I always cried to God for help, telling Him I did not like that condition. Even as a backslider, I missed Him. Every seed of God will always cry to God for help, not to man or the devil, the moment he or she discovers that you are on the wrong track.

Saul's appeal to Prophet Samuel, asking him to pray to his God for mercy, was hypocritical. God, who searches the heart of all men, knew that Saul's repentance was not genuine. His motive was driven by a desire to retain kingship and avoid public shame (1 Samuel 15:24-25). Know this: someone may ask God for mercy, and may not obtain it because of the condition of his heart, or because he himself has not forgiven others who sinned against him.

King Amaziah did that which was right before the Lord, but not with a perfect heart (2 Chronicles 25:2). Saul's appeal was not from a perfect heart.

It was different in the case of David. Whenever he realized his error or was made to know where he went wrong, he always genuinely returned to God asking for mercy. When Uzzah touched the Ark of God in error, he was struck dead by God, David was angry (2 Samuel 6:8–11). But later, he blamed himself, not God or others and declared “For we sought him not after the due order; (2 Chronicles 15:13).” That's why the next time, he consulted God first before making a move to relocate the Ark of covenant.

That is divine wisdom.

It was after seeking the face of God in prayer that David discovered that only the Levites, specifically the Kohathites, were the tribe in Israel appointed to carry the Ark (Numbers 4:1–15, 19–20). David's actions showed the following godly qualities:

- Humility – Recognizing the need for God's guidance and correction.
- Obedience – Willingness to follow God's instructions exactly.
- Good Leadership – Taking responsibility for past mistakes and doing God's will.

A false brother will not behave that way.

Here is another example:

David came home one day and found his city burnt down and his people, including his wives and children, taken into captivity by the Amalekites. Rather than act hastily, he first enquired of the Lord, asking whether he should pursue them. And God answered, “Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and without fail recover all” (1 Samuel 30:8). That is genuine faith, trust, and humility in action. It also shows high-quality leadership, coupled with his continual worship to God and a tender heart.

David was a compassionate man. He showed kindness to Mephibosheth by inviting him to eat continually at the king's table and by restoring his family's land (2 Samuel 9). Despite Saul's relentless attempts to kill him, David mourned the death of Saul and Jonathan, even composing a lamentation for them (2 Samuel 1:17–27). David spared Saul's life—not once, but twice (1 Samuel 24:1–15; 26:1–15).

After his grievous sin with Bathsheba, David demonstrated genuine repentance, acknowledging his wrongdoings with no ulterior motives and seeking God's mercy (Psalm 51). When the Ark was finally brought to Jerusalem, David danced before the Lord with all his might, disregarding people's opinions, including that of his wife (2 Samuel 6:14–23). To David, what mattered most was pleasing God, not men.

All these, and more, are why God declared him “a man after mine own heart” (1 Samuel 13:14; Acts 13:22).

Friends, God knows our hearts. Therefore, “Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life” (Proverbs 4:23). Genuine love or hatred begins in the heart. Remember : only the pure in heart will see the Lord (Matt 5:8).

THE LORD SAID, I WILL HAVE MERCY.....
BUT ON WHO?

Chapter

TWENTY

BAPTISM OF THE HOLY GHOST / ETERNAL LIFE

Lord Jesus, before ascending into heaven, commanded His disciples to wait at Jerusalem for baptism of the Holy Ghost. This was for the work of the ministry and for the completion of their new birth. He said, '...but wait for the promise of the Father, which ye have heard of me. For John truly baptized with water: but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence' (Act 1:4-5; 8). "Apostle Paul declared, "For we were all baptized by one Spirit into one body-whether Jews or Greeks, slave or free-and we were all given one Spirit to drink (1 Corintians 12:13 NLT)-that's being filled with the Holy Ghost. Friends, Holy Ghost baptism is the summary, that's the assurance of eternal life, and sometimes it comes before water baptism, sometimes after-depends on God's appointed time. Peter says, "Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we?" (Act 10:47). When Jesus resurrected, He met some disciples, breathed on them, and said, "Receive ye the Holy Ghost" (John 20:22). And on the Pentecost, He poured it out on them all (Act 2:1-4). John the Baptist says, 'I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance...

he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire' (Matthew 3:11). Again Jesus affirmed, "Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God" (John 3:5). He says, "God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in Spirit and in truth" (John 4:24). You cannot understand the truth unless you have received the Holy Ghost.

Paul explains it further thus:

It is only our own spirit within us that knows all about us; in the same way, only God's Spirit knows all about God. We have not received this world's spirit; instead, we have received the Spirit sent by God, so that we may know all that God has given us.

So then, we do not speak in words taught by human wisdom, but in words taught by the Spirit, as we explain spiritual truths to those who have the Spirit. Whoever does not have the Spirit cannot receive the gifts that come from God's Spirit. Such a person really does not understand them, and they seem to be nonsense, because their value can be judged only on a spiritual basis. (1 Corinthians 2:11-14, GNB)

So, let all who desire to serve God acceptably ask Him for His Spirit (Luke 11:13), for as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God (Romans 8:14). Those without the Holy Spirit are not His children (Romans 8:9). And as I have said, speaking in tongues or miracles signs and wonder is not always the evidence of having the Holy Ghost. The Lord will give you His Spirit, as He did for me, because you asked, and because you obey Him (John 14:15–17; Acts 5:32).

Now that you have received Him, you are now born of God, and we know that every son of God has eternal life (2 Corinthians 1:22; John 1:12–13; John 3:5). He will lead you into all truth (John 16:13); you will not follow false prophets, because you will watch them as they speak (Matthew 7:15), and flee from them, because you don't know the voice of strangers (John 10:5).

Now that we know that Jesus did not come to raise believers only, but disciples (Matthew 28:19; John 8:31), that is why you should not stop at believing and confessing Jesus as your Lord and Saviour (Romans 10:9–10). Rather, you are to continue searching for Him with all your heart (Jeremiah 29:13), obeying Him, and becoming His disciple indeed (John 8:31). And because you do not want to deceive yourself, you are not only a hearer but should be a doer of the word (James 2:22). And as an elect of Christ, you cannot be deceived (Matthew 24:24).

Furthermore, as stated previously, some people stopped at the point of just believing and trusting the Lord Jesus. But Apostle James said, “Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble” (James 2:19).

Brethren, we can see clearly that being born again is a process, and it must go on to perfection. God Almighty said to Abraham, “Walk before me, and be thou perfect” (Genesis 17:1). Likewise, the Lord Jesus commanded, “Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect” (Matthew 5:48).

Apostle Paul also teaches us the true wisdom, which is the knowledge of the truth, that we may be perfected in Christ (Ephesians 1:17). He explained that the five-fold ministry (Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Pastors and Teachers) which every living church should operate with them in this era of grace is for the perfecting of the saints, that we may not walk in error (Ephesians 4:11–13). Apostle Peter, in the same way, teaches us to endure persecution, for our sufferings as true disciples of Christ will also lead us unto perfection (1 Peter 5:10). Again, the Lord Jesus says, “Sanctify them through thy truth: (perfect them); thy word is truth” (John 17:17).

Therefore, it is not about church activities, speaking in tongues, academic degrees, anointing, or religious titles—but the baptism of the Holy Ghost—that you may not walk in error but in Spirit and in truth (John 3:5; John 1:33; John 4:24; 2 Corinthians 1:22; Romans 8:13–15; John 16:13).

He said in Psalm 101:6, “Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me.”

So, do not take away true obedience in this Christian race. It is not about being good or religious, but about being righteous (Romans 8:13–14)—that is, doing what is right before God. And this is a battle. Apostle Paul said, “Fight the good fight of faith” (1 Timothy 6:11–12). Jesus said, “Strive to enter in at the strait gate...” (Luke 13:24). Remember, we are fighting from the place of victory, for this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith (1 John 5:4–5).

Yes, and because you know that faith without works is dead (James 2:20), this faith and belief must produce good works. That is why you zealously repented of all false doctrines and corrected or did proper water and Holy Ghost baptism in the NAME of the Lord Jesus, just as the Apostles did. Then the blood of Jesus speaks for you, and “the Spirit also bears witness” (1 John 5:6–8). He that hath an ear to hear let him hear what the spirit saith unto the churches.

Chapter

TWENTY ONE

THE DEMAND OF THE HOUR: WATCH EVERYTHING

(AS WE ARE AT THE LAST HOUR, WE MUST WATCH EVERYTHING)

Friends, are you aware that false prophets have re-written the Bible, and many are still rewriting theirs? Some say Paul was wrong, others claim translators added to what Paul wrote, while some say they must rewrite it to suit 21st-century life. Many have added their false doctrines over time, claiming to interpret it better, but their intention is to twist scripture to suit their false teaching. But we, the true believers, reject that—we stand by the translated English versions, trusting the Holy Spirit's guidance in preserving God's Word.

You can confirm this as well: Apart from Romans 8:1 (related to verse 4) which was altered from the KJV, crucial passages like Act 8:37, John 7:53, Mathew 17:21-23:14, and 1 Timothy 3:16 were disputed or omitted in some modern versions. So, you had better be watchful, run for your soul, and stop following man, but God.

To all of us who are servants of God, hear this: If you are truly called by God, your message must focus on the second coming of the Lord Jesus (the end-time message). And if you have already started, watch still, for we must focus on His coming, engaging in true evangelism as commanded in Mark 16:15–16. Just as John the Baptist and the prophet Isaiah prepared people for the first coming of our Lord (Isaiah 40:3; Matthew 3:1–3), we also must prepare people for the second coming of the Lord Jesus, which is at hand. He says: “Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved...” (Mark 16:15–16). Remember, He says, “Behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be” (Revelation 22:12). And I say, “Come, O Lord,” and let the children of God say, “Come, O Lord.” Amen!

You can see that many churches, even those that rebuke sin, are still operating in error because they're not watching. And some don't even rebuke sin—those ones haven't even started! Let's arise, correct the errors, and walk in truth acceptably Brethren, he that truly loves God must watch. Lord Jesus said, “Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh” (Matthew 25:13), and the ultimate result of this watchfulness is to be conformed to the IMAGE OF CHRIST (Romans 8:29; 1 John 4:17).

Chapter

TWENTY TWO

BACK TO SENDER

Friends, Lord Jesus gave us a new pattern of prayer He said, “Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you” (Matthew 5:43-44). Apostle Paul also said, “Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not” (Romans 12:14). “For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness in high places (Ephesians 6:12). See what I do in spiritual warfare? I declare, “Any arrow the enemy fired in my life, back to Satan in Jesus name, amen.” (Friends, our enemy is Satan) That defensive approach (“Back to sender or let my enemy die by fire or by thunder etc.”) is not Christ's way or the Apostles' prayer Style—we should follow their example as disciples of Christ. Yes, under the Law “Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live (Exodus 22:18) but Christ has nullified that. Again in Isaiah 54:17, the Lord says, “Every tongue that shalt rise against you in judgement, thou shall condemn.” Cancel the negative spoken words by the Word of God—not the person. See, if you study Isaiah 41:10, Deuteronomy 3:22, Genesis 12:3, Isaiah 43:3-4 and 49:26, Psalm 89:23, 2 Chronicles 20:15 you will know that your enemies are dead already unless they repent. “Vengeance is mine; I will repay, says the Lord (Romans 12:19). The Lord in many cases prepares a table before me in the presence of my enemies (Psalm 23:5). See, even when the enemy comes in like a flood, the Spirit of God will lift up a standard against him (Isaiah 59:19) So, ours is to ask for mercy on their behalf. That’s a Christian—perfected in Christ (Matthew 5:44-48). Hear this also: Our Lord gave both example and command toward our enemies: — “Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.” (Luke 23:34) Yet those who withstand the true gospel receive swift judgment from God. This is according to the Word: — “The Lord your God proveth you... and that prophet... shall be put to death” (Deuteronomy 13:3-5)

There are two kinds of people who oppose the gospel:

1. The fearful who forsake— “At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.” (2 Timothy 4:16)
For such, we pray to God for the forgiveness of their sins, as Christ did (Luke 23:34; 1 Peter 2:23)
2. The enemies of truth who withstand the Word of God— “Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil... the Lord reward him according to his works” (2 Timothy 4:14)
For such, we hand them to the righteous Judge (Psalm 37:9; Romans 12:19)

Elymas the sorcerer withstood Paul, and Paul said, “O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?” —And immediately the hand of the Lord was upon him, and he was blind (Acts 13:8-11)

Simon the sorcerer perverted the way, and Peter said, —“Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.”

(Acts 8:20). So, in this grace era, is clear that, the prayer of let my enemy die is another gospel, but, the Lord reward him that opposes the true gospel is in order.

You love your enemies because, as a product of mercy and grace, the Lord Jesus who saved you is your Master and Role Model. “For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them” (Luke 9:54-56). All the men of this world shall hate you (Matthew 10:22), but you will not be offended, for they hated the Lord also (John 15:18). When you are persecuted, you should not be offended (Matthew 11:6), but rather, rejoice because you are counted worthy to suffer shame for His name (Acts 5:41). Remember, John was asked to take the little book from Jesus' hand and eat it—sweet in his mouth, bitter in his belly, and then prophesy again. Meaning: sharing God's truth brings initial joy, but often leads to persecution (Revelation 10:8-11). You can no longer continue in sin, for the seed (nature) of God remains in you, and you have dominion over sin by the power of the Holy Ghost (1 John 3:9).

And because you are under grace and not under the law, that is why you can now obey God indeed (Romans 6:14-18). You are saved not by works, lest any man should boast, but you are saved unto good works (Ephesians 2:8-10). Now, it is He who works in you both to will and to do of His good pleasure (Philippians 2:13). You now fear God, which is the beginning of knowledge (Proverbs 1:7), and because you love Him, you obey Him (John 14:15). Your love for God has made you to seek His wisdom and to know Him by revelation (Ephesians 1:16-17).

BACK TO SENDER

Chapter

TWENTY THREE

BORN AGAIN INSIDE AND OUT

Friends, we're called to be separated from the world.

The first Christians in Antioch were known by how they followed Christ—inside and out (Acts 11:26).

Being born again changes the heart, and that change should be visible in how we live and present ourselves—with modesty and simplicity that honours Him.

“Be not conformed to this world” (Romans 12:2).

Old things are passed away (2 Cor 5:17). Let the world see Christ in us and be drawn to Him. This is for both men and women.

As a Born again christian male which have forsaken worldly fashions such as dreadlocks, earrings, skirts worn by men etc (Deuteronomy 22:5); and you women which have forsaken trousers which are for men, earrings, nose rings, attachments, false eyelashes, make-up, and the exposure of your body to the public, you have embraced modest dressing, and beyond that, your heart is transformed to the image of Christ (Romans 8:29). You can now see how spiritually focused, peaceful, and connected with God you are (Romans 8:6). Just as Jacob commanded his household to put away their strange gods and change their garments, and they dwelt in peace thereafter (Genesis 35:2–5), so also are you now living in the peace of God.

You can no longer be condemned, because you walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit (Romans 8:1-8:4 KJV). You now passionately preach the true gospel, because you have received the Holy Ghost (Acts 1:8). You will not pray through Mary or to departed brethren (“saints”) who also awaits judgment (Hebrews 9:27), for the resurrected Jesus is the one making intercession for you continually (1 Timothy 2:5).

Now you rejoice, for the Holy Ghost dwells in you (Romans 8:14). Yes, you rejoice, because as a chosen vessel, you understand these revelations written for all, especially for the seed of God (Luke 8:10).

You rejoice because God hath given you eternal life freely (2 Corinthians 1:22; Romans 6:23), and He will not take it back, for the gifts and calling of God are without repentance (Romans 11:29). You can now testify that you are saved, and saved forever (John 10:27–29). Your heart is full of joy because the Lord your God and Saviour rejoices over you with singing (Zephaniah 3:17).

Hallelujah! You rejoice because as the bride of Christ—which you are now—you are watching and eagerly waiting for the Bridegroom's imminent second coming (Titus 2:13), and for that great wedding day with Him in Heaven (Revelation 19:6–10). Praise Master Jesus Halleluiah Amen. Shalom.

Produced and Published by

Evangelist Edwin Nwachukwu

Address Plot 6, Lobito Crescent, Off Ademola Adetokunbo Crescent,
Wuse II, Abuja,
Nigeria.

Visit: www.endtimewatch.org

We also encourage you to be among those who will share this book, both online and offline. For more information or to request hard copies Call, text, or chat with us on WhatsApp at +234 704 1034444.
Email: edwinnwachukwu2017@gmail.com

God bless you.

THE END TIME BIBLE PROPHECIES ARE NOW BEING FULFILLED!

The gospel of Christ is now being preached in all the nations of the world; the King is coming! So rise up, for the end is upon us.- Matt 24:14, 33.
Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. - 2Timothy 2:15.

The Lord Jesus says, “Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free.” - John 8:32, 36.

Search, study and explore the Bible truth. - John 5:39.

This book serves as a reminder, a warning, and a guide to correct wrong doctrines and practices, for the perfection of the saints.- 2Timothy 3:16-17.

Evangelist Edwin Nwachukwu

